School Transfer Movement Pressed by Rural Parents

Aims Outlined By Rural Group For City Board

A group of 17 parents of rural students, against whom the doors of Washington C. H. High School are to be closed after this year, was assured by the School Board that their questions concerning the possibility of this year's sophomores and juniors continuing in school until they are graduated "are among several proposals that need to be studied." However, they were given little hope that it could be done.

The group of parents spent about half an hour talking things over with the Washington C. H. School Board at its regular meeting Monday night.

Most of them said they had not been at the meeting the board had called to explain why the action had been taken. The discussions were all on a friendly basis, even in view of the possibility that their pupils would not be able to get their diplomas from Washington C. H. High School.

Robert Terhune, the president of the board, reviewed the board's action in closing the doors to tuition pupils and explained that it felt it had to take the action to relieve crowded conditions, to take advantage of the new system of distributing state School Foundation funds and because the County School Board had refused for six years to try to work out the problems with the city board.

TERHUNE told the parents that the School Board was sympathetic to its problems and repeated that although the doors had been closed to the tuition pupils, they had not been locked. This was when he said their questions "are among several that need to be studied."

There was a distinct atmosphere of informality over the meeting. No attempt was made by the board to get the names of the visitors but during the discussions, after the questions had been put to the board by Paul Sheppard, Willard McLean, Imel Howard and Mrs. Robert Klevor, were among those who took part in the conversations. The group was made up of mothers and fathers.

There were no hints, during the talks, that any of the parents held ill feeling toward the board, or blamed it, for its action in excluding rural students. However, there was no concealing the sadness and disappointment over the inability of their children to take advantage of the schooling offered by Washington C. H. High School.

This same attitude toward the Washington C. H. School Board was set down in a letter from the recently formed Rural Parents Association.

The letter not only acknowledged the "tolerance and generosity" of the city School Board "in providing for our tuition students in the past," but it also strongly hinted that the aroused rural parents were prepared to take extreme action to achieve their avowed objective of "annexation to your school district."

THE LETTER follows in full: "The Rural Parents Association has been formed for the purpose of returning as many as possible of the present tuition pupils in your high school to that school on a permanent basis; in other words, we are seeking annexation to your school district."

Ever hunt Easter eggs from a motorcycle?

That's what 37 members of the Silver Rockets Motorcycle Club here did Sunday. The 'cyclists carefully colored and numbered all the eggs and two members hid them in a field near here.

Then, with their motors roaring, the Rockets bounced through the field in a motorized Easter egg hunt.

Several of the eggs bore "prize" numbers and the lucky 'cyclists who brought in those eggs won awards ranging from a trophy to a pack of gum.

First prize, a trophy, went to Charles Carr. Ronnie Meyer took the second prize, a rear-view mirror for his motorcycle. Gene Melson won the third prize, a rear mud flap for his machine.

Other winners were Charles Hayes, Kenneth Bonecutter, Franklin Kingery, Dave Reid, Clayton Fannin, Harold Roberts, Dick Phillips, Eddie Hamilton, Peggy Hamilton Dale and Roger Fralvey.

Every rider who brought in eggs won chewing gum plus one candy bar for each egg.

A wiener roast wound up the session.

Rural Parents Issue Bulletin And Plan Meet

The Rural Parents Association, meeting Monday evening at the Hotel Washington, issued the second of a series of bulletins on problems facing Fayette County educators and laid the groundwork for a meeting at which all views are to be presented.

The RPA is an organization made up of the parents of rural children attending Washington C. H. High School as tuition students.

The meeting proposed by the 80 persons present at Monday evening's session would be an exchange of opinion from all persons interested in education here.

Everyone of every shade of opinion will be welcome according to a spokesman for the RPA.

The time of the meeting will depend on the place, since a large meeting hall has not yet been secured.

The bulletin presented to the group was designed to show "why population changes in Fayette County are important and must be considered in determining a sound school program."

ACCORDING to figures in the bulletin, total rural population in the county has declined from 16,666 in 1880 to 10,211 in 1956. School-age children in the rural areas of the county numbered 4,533 in 1880 and 2,868 in 1955.

The bulletin argued that with increasing mechanization of farms, the decline in population in the county's rural areas would continue.

"In the face of this, any increase in population in Fayette County will be in Washington C. H. and in what is known as rural residential," the report stated.

The reason for the crowded conditions in such rural schools as Good Hope and Bloomington, the report added, was not due to an increase in population in the rural parts of the county, but to the closing of four "large, consolidated" schools.

The four schools, Cisco, Buena Vista, Conner and Yatesville, were abandoned because they became "uneconomic to operate" because of their small enrollments, the report said, and named four more schools facing abandonment for the same reason.

The four, all with 1955 enrollments of less than 100 pupils, are Perry, Marion, Green and Paint.

The report closed with a comparison of last year's request on the ballot for $442,000 to repair existing county school buildings and the recent finding of the 28-man Miami Trace Fact Finding Com-

High Court Decision Fails To Bring Change In Hillsboro

HILLSBORO (AP)—There was no change today in Hillsboro's school segregation problem despite yesterday's U. S. Supreme Court decision.

Fourteen Negro children again were denied admission today to the Webster-Washington Elementary School. They and several mothers immediately moved into the office of Principal Harold Henry and declined to leave.

There was no disorder and there was no immediate word as to whether the mothers and children planned to remain in Henry's office all day or whether any effort would be made to get them to leave.

New Curriculum For High School Here Approved

Although the Washington C. H. School Board spent only about half an hour explaining to a group of parents of rural students, its regular meeting Monday night ran beyond midnight before it finished up with its business.

Most of the business was disposed of with a minimum of discussion because it had been gone over in some detail at previous meetings; other business was of a more or less routine nature. The highlight, however, was the approval of a high school curriculum.

A revised insurance program was approved. Submitted at a previous meeting by Tom Mark and Richard Willis, representing a group of insurance agents, the new program provides for broadened coverage for a total three-year cost of $166.88. The premium, it was noted, was only $130 a year more than the old program with considerably less coverage.

Briefly the program provides for: $1,000 blanket dishonesty; $1,700 money and securities (inside); $2,000 money and security (outside) and $13,500 burglary and theft on contents with limits set for high school and Central School $5,000, high school shop building $1,500, field house $3,000 and $1,000 for each of the other four elementary schools.

A cooling system for the office of the principal was approved. It is to be installed by the Gorton Electric Co. on a bid of $540.

THE CONTRACT of Charles L. McGiff, instructor of the veterans institutional on-farm training program, was approved for another three months. The salary, paid by the government, is $371.75 a month with a .065-cent a mile car allowance.

Purchase of a new projection booth spotlight for $315 and an extra lamp for $32 was authorized.

A letter from the Ohio Water Service Co. confirming the agreement to buy a 27-acre tract on Elm Street for a new school building — when, and if, a bond issue for that purpose is passed — was read.

The Water Co. agreed to the sale because the School Board cannot under the law take an option.

The letter was signed by J. V. Carthy, the executive vice president. One paragraph said "We are happy to have been able to cooperate with the Board as it makes its plans to care for problems in the growth of Washington C. H."

With the business taken care of, the board devoted its attention to the revised high school curriculum. The curriculum was drafted by a committee of high school faculty members and Prin. John Trace and then Prin. Trace and Supt. W. A. Smith completed details and Supt. Smith submitted it to the board with recommendations for its adoption by himself, the principal and the faculty committee.

The board did put its stamp of approval on the new curriculum with the comment that this was another step in "up-grading" the Washington C. H. High School curriculum. The board recommended that the school be put on an 8-period day instead of the present 7-period day. But, no action was taken.

It was divided into five major courses — plus the auto mechanics and vocational agriculture which are still uncertain.

THE NEW curriculum is designed to prepare students for college entrance, home economics, industrial arts, stenographic pursuits and business careers. It follows:

Stored Grain Tax Case Is Given Hearing

Fayette Countian Asks For Decision By Tax Commission

A request for "review and re-determination" of a personal property tax on wheat stored under government made by Ray R. Maddox of Fayette County was heard by a General Hearing Board of the Ohio Department of Taxation behind closed doors Tuesday morning.

Assessments on grain followed the failure of a late county auditor, Uric Acton, to make assessments. State Tax Commissioner Stanley J. Bowers has estimated the total assessments at $18,000.

The present county auditor, Harry Allen, has turned the assessments over to County Treasurer Charles Fabb. But Fabb, in a letter to Gov. Frank J. Lausche, expressed reluctance to collect what he termed a "discriminatory" tax.

The general hearing board will make a recommendation to Bowers, who will make a ruling.

If the decision is unfavorable to Maddox, he will then have the right to appeal the decision to the State Board of Tax Appeals.

A BILL passed in the last state Legislature exempted grain stored under government loan from personal property taxes, but did not become effective until Sept. 30 of last year.

The money involved in the Fayette County case was uncollected prior to that date.

Treasurer Fabb, Frank Alexander of the Farm Bureau and Willard Perrill, a Fayette County farmer, went to Columbus for the hearing, but whether they were able to get into the board room was not immediately learned.

The Farm Bureau has taken a position similar to that of Fabb, contending that the tax is discriminatory. From the state headquarters word has gone out to farmers to pay the tax — but pay it under protest in the hope they can get a refund if the tax is held illegal.

Tax On Stored Grain Opposed By Fleckner

COLUMBUS (AP)—Oscar Fleckner, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, said last night that Ohio's grain farmers should be exempted from personal property taxes on grain stored under government loan.

Speaking in Greenville at a gathering of farmers, Fleckner said: "Farm families are squeezed between declining prices for their products and rising prices for their needs."

In Cleveland, Municipal Court Judge John E. Sweeney, another candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, called for a "re-evaluation" of the state sales tax so as to provide municipalities with a greater share of the revenues.

In a statement issued at his headquarters, Sweeney said: "I believe our state sales tax, if apportioned properly, could more than make up the present income deficiencies faced by our cities."

"The Ohio sales tax should be reevaluated with an eye toward halting diversions into fields which should get their incomes from other sources, and the proceeds of this tax should be used for city services because basically it is obtained from local consumption of goods."

'Small Burglar' Escapes When Spotted by Police While Looting Offices

The small burglar, who has been active in the city for several nights, was interrupted at his work in the offices on the second floor of the First National Bank Building about 9:30 Monday but he eluded officers by climbing through a skylight. He apparently slid to the ground on a downspout before police could apprehend him.

Patrolman Kenneth Sanders on was cruising past the building when he saw lights in some of the offices.

Halting his car he tried the stairway door, found it had been jammed. He immediately radioed for assistance and several officers were soon searching every office and room on the second floor.

Jimmy marks were found on the doors of the offices of Dr. C. L. Ford, Maddox and Hire and the Fayette Credit Bureau.

Nothing was missed in any of the offices; apparently, the burglar was looking for money only.

Self-Defense Angle Seen In Logan Trial

LOGAN (AP)—Defense counsel has indicated it will seek to establish that defendant Robert Hartshorn, 26, killed his 37-year-old brother Lloyd, in self defense last Nov. 29. Hartshorn is charged with second degree murder.

The trial opened yesterday with George Hartshorn, father of the two, testifying that Robert, bruised and bloody, came into his (George's) house, got a .22 caliber pistol and went outside the Perry Twp. residence. A minute or so later, the elder Hartshorn testified, he "heard a pistol crack."

Defense Attorney Phil Henderson told the jury in opening remarks that Lloyd menaced Robert with an ax.

The brothers were in the junk business together. Robert was indicted by a grand jury in the shooting which officials said arose from an argument over money matters.

An all-male jury is hearing the case.

Still missing were two state witnesses, Everett and Mildred Hartshorn, whom Sheriff A. J. Waldron has been unable to locate to testify in the trial.

Sheriff Waldron believes the couple is in the Columbus area and an intensive search is being made to locate them.

It was found that they were missing last week when the sheriff tried to serve a summons.

Falling Tree Kills Man At Strip Mine

The cave-in occurred at the site of a strip mining operation near here.

Oklahoma Hit By Tornadoes, Texas By Dust

Kansas, Missouri Feel Twisters; Worst Spot Said South Of Tulsa

DRUMRIGHT, Okla. (AP)—A rash of tornadoes struck two dozen towns in Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri last night, killing at least seven. Three others died in a vicious West Texas dust storm about the same time.

The most furious twister hit Drumright, leaving five dead and a hundred houses smashed in this town of 5,000 about 40 miles southwest of Tulsa.

Two were killed in southeast Kansas, where weather observers said there were 14 tornadoes.

Four twisting funnels hit the extreme southwest corner of Missouri, with police reporting two persons injured and $100,000 worth of damage in Joplin.

The Oklahoma casualty list, along a path from Drumright to Miami in the northeast corner of the state, included 50 injured.

Four members of the C.V. Bevel family were killed in Drumright: Bevel, his wife, and two daughters, Gloria, 17, and Virginia, 18.

A TEEN-AGE son, at a movie when the storm hit, is the only survivor. Mrs. Elmer Weaver, 81, died later in a hospital.

Mrs. Ethel Whited, about 70, was killed by the twister which hit just south of Grenola, Kan. Another splintered the home of E. E. Reek near Toronto, Kan., killing Reek and blowing his wife and daughter out of the house. They were not injured seriously.

A dozen were hurt in the storm which hit Miami, Okla., and wrecked a four-block area.

Lesser twisters were reported in Hopeton, Skeedee, near Pond Creek, Davenport, Jacktown, on the edge of Tulsa, and Freedom, all in Oklahoma.

A tornado also was reported in the small community of Sobel in Pushmataha county of southeastern Oklahoma.

The tornado struck about midnight and two persons were injured, none believed serious.

Two homes and a 3-room frame school were destroyed and a church damaged by the twister. Power lines were down.

The Oklahoma Highway Department, which sent a disaster crew to Sobel, said many roads in the county were blocked by uprooted trees and wrecked power lines. Residents of nearby Antlers were frightened by the storm which brought light rain. The city suffered $6 dead and millions of dollars worth of damage when a tornado hit in 1945.

A BLINDING dust storm that some old-timers said was the worst they could remember whipped across the Southwest, demolishing small buildings and killing at least three persons.

Driven by winds that ranged up to 80 miles an hour, the dust storm engulfed portions of New Mexico, Colorado and Oklahoma entered its main force in west Texas, where visibility dropped to zero at many points.

Midland, Big Spring, Childress, Pecos and Abilene were among West Texas cities reporting "zero-zero" conditions during the worst of the storms. Street lights were turned on and automobiles, with headlights on, inched their way through the choking curtain.

An estimated 100 houses in a 25-block area were demolished or badly damaged in Drumright.

The First Christian Church was leveled, as were some six business buildings. The front of the city library caved in and the Salvation Army hut collapsed.

"It hit like a ball of fire, and bounced toward Drumright," said Mrs. Ida Brasel, who lives between Drumright and Cushing.

Daytona Beach Battles Blazes

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Roaring flames destroyed or damaged several downtown buildings early today. Authorities indicated the fire might have been set deliberately.

No casualties were reported. No official estimate of damages was available but it was expected to reach about $750,000.

The fire started about 11:30 p.m. in the 1,650-seat Empire Theater and spread to an adjacent hotel.

About 100 guests in the three-story Orange Hotel were evacuated. About 700 theater patrons had left about 30 minutes before the fire was discovered.

Bored Teen-Agers Decide On Marriage

CLEVELAND (AP)—Then there was the juvenile court case of a teen-age boy and girl who decided to get married because "there was nothing better to do."

The girl and her 15-year-old chum stole a car and then persuaded their boy friends, both 14, to elope with them.

Judge Albert Woldman gave both girls and one of the boys suspended sentences while the other boy was sent to Boys Industrial School. The four were arrested March 13 in Bryan.

The 15-year-old girl told the judge she realized she had been "silly" but insisted she still wanted to get married.

OK Is Predicted On New Farm Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) said today he is confident a compromise farm bill now being drafted "will be acceptable to the majority in both the House and Senate."

Johnston made the prediction as the conferees prepared to resume work on the complex and politically charged bill.

Any compromise of varying Senate and House bills will still require approval by the two branches after they return next week from an Easter recess.

President Eisenhower reiterated yesterday he wants "to get a good farm bill and get it promptly." He made the comment in a statement issued in connection with his signing of two other farm measures, both of which he had recommended.

One exempts gasoline used on farms from the 2-cent federal tax on each gallon. The estimated saving to farmers is $60 million yearly. Farmers still have to pay the tax when they buy gasoline, but they may get refunds.

Eisenhower said the new law will "help alleviate the cost-price squeeze" on farmers.

THE OTHER bill he approved raises from $50 million to $60 million the money for the school milk program in this bookkeeping year, ending June 30; extends this program for two more years; and authorizes up to $75 million a year for it in those two years.

Eisenhower termed it "an excellent example of how we can make constructive use of our nation's abundance by developing expanded outlets."

As for general new farm legislation, there have been predictions by a number of Republicans and a few Democrats that Eisenhower will veto any bill which closely resembled either the Senate or House versions. Eisenhower has called the former unworkable.

Rep. Arends of Illinois, assistant House GOP leader, thinks the Democratic-controlled Congress "is deliberately trying to write a farm bill the President will have to veto to protect the welfare of our farmers and the country as a whole."

Arends said the bill being worked out in conference is "nothing more or less than a political cafeteria, where what you seem to see is not what you get."

The conferees already have tentatively agreed upon provisions to which the administration is strongly opposed. The principal one of these calls for a return to high rigid price supports on basic commodities.

Tentative approval has been given also to the soil bank, the administration's major 1956 farm recommendation. Under it, farmers would be paid up to $1.2 billion a year to take land out of production of crops already in surplus and put them to conservation uses.

Hog Prices Reach Springtime High

CHICAGO (AP)—The price of hogs reached its highest peak since last Oct. 4 here yesterday with some 300 lean butchers bought at $16 a hundredweight.

Prices near the top—$15.50 to $15.75—were paid for most mixed lots of No. 1 and No. 2 butchers weighing 191 to 260 pounds, with several lots sorted for grade to bring from $15.85 to $16 for best animals of 199-229 pounds.

Observers said that farmers generally received their production costs, and in many cases a slight profit, marking a substantial improvement over deals made in the winter.

Cincinnati Firm Wins In Lawsuit

CINCINNATI (AP)—Damages of $100,000 and lawyers' fees of $15,000 were awarded to the Farbach Chemical Co., Inc., of Cincinnati yesterday by Federal District Judge John E. Druffel in a countersuit against International Industries and Developments, Inc.

The counter claim was filed after the New York firm charged Farbach with patent infringement in manufacture of a silver cleaner.

Judge Druffel ruled that the infringement charge was unfounded.

Submitted at a previous meeting by Tom Mark and Richard Willis, representing a group of insurance agents, the new program provides for broadened coverage for a total three-year cost of $766.88. The premium, it was noted was only $130 a year more than the old program with considerably less coverage.

Briefly the program provides for: $1,000 blanket dishonesty; $1,700 money and securities (inside); $2,000 money and security (outside) and $13,500 burglary and theft on contents with limits set for high school and Central School $5,000, high school shop building $1,500, field house $3,000 and $1,000 for each of the other four elementary schools.

A cooling system for the office of the principal was approved. It is to be installed by the Gorton Electric Co. on a bid of $540.

THE CONTRACT of Charles L. McGiff, instructor of the veterans institutional on-farm training program, was approved for another three months. The salary, paid by the government, is $371.75 a month with an .065-cent a mile car allowance.

Purchase of a new projection booth spotlight for $315 and an extra lamp for $32 was authorized.

A letter from the Ohio Water Service Co. confirming the agreement to buy a 27-acre tract on Elm Street for a new school building — when, and if, a bond issue for that purpose is passed — was read.

The Water Co. agreed to the sale because the School Board cannot under the law take an option.

The letter was signed by J. V. Perry, the executive vice president. One paragraph said "We are happy to have been able to cooperate with the Board as it makes its plans to care for problems in the growth of Washington C. H."

With the business taken care of, the board devoted its attention to the revised high school curriculum.

The curriculum was drafted by a committee of high school faculty members and Prin. John Trace and then Prin. Trace and Supt. W. A. Smith completed details and Supt. Smith submitted it to the board with recommendations for its adoption by himself, the principal and the faculty committee.

The board did put its stamp of approval on the new curriculum with the comment that this was another step in "up-grading" the Washington C. H. High School curriculum. The board recommended that the school be put on an 8-period day instead of the present 7-period day. But, no action was taken.

It was divided into five major courses — plus the auto mechanics and vocational agriculture which are still uncertain.

THE NEW curriculum is designed to prepare students for college entrance, home economics, industrial arts, stenographic pursuits and business careers. It follows:

Stored Grain Tax Case Is Given Hearing

Fayette Countian Asks For Decision By Tax Commission

A request for "review and redetermination" of a personal property tax on wheat stored under government made by Ray R. Maddox of Fayette County was heard by a General Hearing Board of the Ohio Department of Taxation behind closed doors Tuesday morning.

Assessments on grain followed the failure of a late county auditor, Ulric Acton, to make assessments. State Tax Commissioner Stanley J. Bowers has estimated the total assessments at $18,000.

The present county auditor, Harry Allen, has turned the assessments over to County Treasurer Charles Fabb. But Fabb, in a letter to Gov. Frank J. Lausche, expressed reluctance to collect what he termed a "discriminatory" tax.

The general hearing board will make a recommendation to Bowers, who will make a ruling.

If the decision is unfavorable to Maddox, he will then have the right to appeal the decision to the State Board of Tax Appeals.

A BILL passed in the last state Legislature exempted grain stored under government loan from personal property taxes, but did not become effective until Sept. 30 of last year.

The money involved in the Fayette County case was uncollected prior to that date.

Treasurer Fabb, Frank Alexander of the Farm Bureau and Willard Perrill, a Fayette County farmer, went to Columbus for the hearing, but whether they were able to get into the board room was not immediately learned.

The Farm Bureau has taken a position similar to that of Fabb, contending that the tax is discriminatory. From the state headquarters word has gone out to farmers to pay the tax — but pay it under protest in the hope they can get a refund if the tax is held illegal.

Tax On Stored Grain Opposed By Fleckner

COLUMBUS (AP)—Oscar Fleckner, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, said last night that Ohio's grain farmers should be exempted from personal property taxes on grain stored under government loan.

Speaking in Greenville at a gathering of farmers, Fleckner said: "Farm families are squeezed between declining prices for their products and rising prices for their needs."

In Cleveland, Municipal Court Judge John E. Sweeney, another candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, called for a "re-evaluation" of the state sales tax so as to provide municipalities with a greater share of the revenues.

In a statement issued at his headquarters, Sweeney said: "I believe our state sales tax, if apportioned properly, could more than make up the present income deficiencies faced by our cities."

"The Ohio sales tax should be reevaluated with an eye toward halting diversions into fields which get their incomes from other sources, and the proceeds of this tax should be used for city services because basically it is obtained from local consumption of goods."

'Small Burglar' Escapes When Spotted by Police While Looting Offices

The small burglar, who has been active in the city for several nights, was interrupted at his work in the offices on the second floor of the First National Bank Building about 9:30 Monday but he eluded officers by climbing through a skylight. He apparently slid to the ground on a downspout before police could apprehend him.

Patrolman Kenneth Sanders was on duty at the time. He was in an effort to get the burglar, whom, police believe, is of small stature. The attempted burglaries Monday night followed a series of break-ins over the week end, and theft of money and a valuable camera.

lice discovered that the intruder had scaled a ladder leading into the attic, opened a trap door on the roof, and escaped.

As a result of the work of the burglar, police have been instructed to "get him" if they get within shooting distance and he attempts to escape.

In the meantime several suspects are being given a grilling in an effort to get the burglar, whom, police believe, is of small stature.

Self-Defense Angle Seen In Logan Trial

LOGAN (AP)—Defense counsel has indicated it will seek to establish that defendant Robert Hartshorn, 26, killed his 37-year-old brother Lloyd, in self defense last Nov. 29.

Hartshorn is charged with second degree murder.

The trial opened yesterday with George Hartshorn, father of the two, testifying that Robert, bruised and bloody, came into his (George's) house, got a 22 caliber pistol and went outside the Perry Twp. residence. A minute or so later, the elder Hartshorn testified, he "heard a pistol crack."

Defense Attorney Phil Henderson told the jury in opening remarks that Lloyd menaced Robert with an ax.

The brothers were in the junk business together. Robert was indicted by a grand jury in the shooting which officials said arose from an argument over money matters.

An all-male jury is hearing the case.

Still missing were two state witnesses, Everett and Mildred Hartshorn, whom Sheriff A. J. Waldron has been unable to locate to testify in the trial.

Sheriff Waldron believes the couple is in the Columbus area and an intensive search is being made to locate them.

It was found that they were missing last week when the sheriff tried to serve a summons.

Oklahoma Hit By Tornadoes, Texas By Dust

Kansas, Missouri Feel Twisters; Worst Spot Said South Of Tulsa

DRUMRIGHT, Okla. (AP)—A rash of tornadoes struck two dozen towns in Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri last night, killing at least seven. Three others died in a vicious West Texas dust storm about the same time.

The most furious twister hit Drumright, leaving five dead and a hundred houses smashed in this town of 5,000 about 40 miles southwest of Tulsa.

Two were killed in southeast Kansas, where weather observers said there were 14 tornadoes.

Four twisting funnels hit the extreme southwest corner of Missouri, with police reporting two persons injured and $100,000 worth of damage in Joplin.

The Oklahoma casualty list, along a path from Drumright to Miami in the northeast corner of the state, included 50 injured.

Four members of the C.V. Bevel family were killed in Drumright: Bevel, his wife, and two daughters, Gloria, 17, and Virginia, 18.

A TEEN-AGE son, at a movie when the storm hit, is the only survivor. Mrs. Elmer Weaver, 81, died later in a hospital.

Mrs. Ethel Whited, about 70, was killed by the twister which hit just south of Grenola, Kan. Another splintered the home of E. E. Reek near Toronto, Kan., killing Reek and blowing his wife and daughter out of the house. They were not injured seriously.

A dozen were hurt in the storm which hit Miami, Okla., and wrecked a four-block area.

Lesser twisters were reported in Hopeton, Skeedee, near Pond Creek, Davenport, Jacktown, on the edge of Tulsa, and Freedom, all in Oklahoma.

A tornado also was reported in the small community of Sobel in Pushmataha county of southeastern Oklahoma.

The tornado struck about midnight and two persons were injured, none believed serious.

Two homes and a 3-room frame school were destroyed and a church damaged by the twister. Power lines were down.

The Oklahoma Highway Department, which sent a disaster crew to Sobel, said many roads in the county were blocked by uprooted trees and wrecked power lines.

Residents of nearby Antlers were frightened by the storm which brought light rain. The city suffered 86 dead and millions of dollars worth of damage when a tornado hit in 1945.

A BLINDING dust storm that some old-timers said was the worst they could remember whipped across the Southwest, demolishing small buildings and killing at least three persons.

Driven by winds that ranged up to 80 miles an hour, the dust storm engulfed portions of New Mexico, Colorado and Oklahoma centered its main force in west Texas, where visibility dropped to zero at many points.

Midland, Big Spring, Childress, Pecos and Abilene were among West Texas cities reporting "zero-zero" conditions during the worst of the storms. Street lights were turned on and automobiles, with headlights on, inched their way through the choking curtain.

An estimated 100 houses in a 25-block area were demolished or badly damaged in Drumright.

The First Christian Church was leveled, as were some six business buildings. The front of the city library caved in and the Salvation Army hut collapsed.

"It hit like a ball of fire, and bounced toward Drumright," said Mrs. Ida Brasel, who lives between Drumright and Cushing.

Daytona Beach Battles Blazes

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Roaring flames destroyed or damaged several downtown buildings early today. Authorities indicated the fire might have been set deliberately.

No casualties were reported. No official estimate of damages was available but it was expected to reach about $750,000.

The fire started about 11:30 p.m. in the 1,050-seat Empire Theater and spread to an adjacent hotel.

About 100 guests in the three-story Orange Hotel were evacuated. About 700 theater patrons had left about 30 minutes before the fire was discovered.

Bored Teen-Agers Decide On Marriage

CLEVELAND (AP)—Then there was the juvenile court case of a teen-age boy and girl who decided to get married because "there was nothing better to do."

The girl and her 15-year-old chum stole a car and then persuaded their boy friends, both 14, to elope with them.

Judge Albert Waldman gave both girls and one of the boys suspended sentences while the other boy was sent to Boys Industrial School. The four were arrested March 13 in Bryan.

The 15-year-old girl told the judge she realized she had been "silly" but insisted she still wanted to get married.

OK Is Predicted On New Farm Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) said today he is confident a compromise farm bill now being drafted "will be acceptable to the majority in both the House and Senate."

Johnston made the prediction as the conferees prepared to resume work on the complex and politically charged bill.

Any compromise of varying Senate and House bills will still require approval by the two branches after they return next week from an Easter recess.

President Eisenhower reiterated yesterday he wants "to get a good farm bill and get it promptly." He made the comment in a statement issued in connection with his signing of two other farm measures, both of which he had recommended.

One exempts gasoline used on farms from the 2-cent federal tax on each gallon. The estimated saving to farmers is $60 million yearly. Farmers still have to pay the tax when they buy gasoline, but they may get refunds.

Eisenhower said the new law will "help alleviate the cost-price squeeze" on farmers.

THE OTHER bill he approved raises from $50 million to $60 million the money for the school milk program in this bookkeeping year, ending June 30; extends this program for two more years; and authorizes up to $75 million a year for it in those two years.

Eisenhower termed it "an excellent example of how we can make constructive use of our nation's abundance by developing expanded outlets."

As for general new farm legislation, there have been predictions by a number of Republicans and a few Democrats that Eisenhower will veto any bill which closely resembled either the Senate or House versions. Eisenhower has called the former unworkable.

Rep. Arends of Illinois, assistant House GOP leader, thinks the Democratic-controlled Congress "is deliberately trying to write a farm bill the President will have to veto to protect the welfare of our farmers and the country as a whole."

Farmers End Milk Strike

Court Orders Chill Michigan Situation

DETROIT (AP) — Leaders of Detroit's milk strike today called off their nine-day old tieup. The order from the striking Fair Share Bargaining Assn. said all picketing ended at 1 p. m. today.

End of the violence - marked strike came as Detroit's milk supply rose to more than 75 per cent of normal.

Roland Brengle, president of the Fair Share group, said, "We gained on objective. Our milk price was increased."

However, other union leaders blamed the decision to call off the strike on court orders that restricted picketing activities and police escorts for milk trucks braving the picket blockade.

Fair share officials said the pickets were withdrawn "to show we are bargaining in good faith for an equitable settlement. If we don't get a fair deal they will be returned."

Brengle told all members of the Fair Shakers to attend a mass meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in Brighton, 30 miles north of Detroit. He said "plans for the future" will be made then.

THE STRIKERS ran into a series of court injunctions yesterday limiting the number of pickets. The court orders were signed in Macomb, Ingham, Huron and Lapeer counties after a succession of pitched battles as strikers sought to bar milk trucks delivering to the Detroit area.

During the strike, the Michigan Milk Producers Assn., to which members of the rebel Fair Share group belong, voted to demand a boost in the wholesale price of milk from $4.41 per hundred pounds to $5.

The majority of Detroit area dairies supplied by the producers association, granted the producers' price increase. The Fair Shakers demanded $6.50 cwt. Several creameries as a result raised the price of milk a cent and a half a quart.

"We hope you can see your way clear to accept the rural area which desires to annex to your district when those legal matters which must be encountered have been passed."

Spinster In Loan Firm Cited In Theft Of Near $3 Million

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Miss Minnie Mangum will go on trial here next month for stealing nearly $3 million from her loan company employers over a 21-year span.

If convicted on all of the 16 counts cited by the grand jury which indicted her yesterday, the spinster could be sentenced to a maximum of 145 years in prison. The minimum would be 24.

Added together, the indictments for grand larceny, embezzlement and forgery accused "Miss Minnie," well known for years for her largesse to relatives and friends, of making off with $2,884,957.06 from the Commonwealth Building and Loan Assn.

Despite its magnitude, the Mangum case is far from the largest of its kind recorded in this country. In 1930, a loss of $8 million toppled the Guaranty Building and Loan Assn. of Hollywood and one of its officials, Gilbert H. Beesmyer, was convicted of grand theft and sentenced to 40 years imprisonment. Beesmyer was paroled in 1940.

Farmers End Milk Strike

Court Orders Chill Michigan Situation

DETROIT (P) — Leaders of Detroit's milk strike today called off their nine-day old tieup. The order from the striking Fair Share Bargaining Assn. said all picketing ended at 1 p. m. today.

End of the violence - marked strike came as Detroit's milk supply rose to more than 75 per cent of normal.

Roland Brengle, president of the Fair Share group, said, "We gained our objective. Our milk price was increased."

However, other union leaders blamed the decision to call off the strike on court orders that restricted picketing activities and police escorts for milk trucks braving the picket blockade.

Fair share officials said the pickets were withdrawn "to show we are bargaining in good faith for an equitable settlement. If we don't get a fair deal they will be returned."

Brengle told all members of the Fair Shakers to attend a mass meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in Brighton, 30 miles north of Detroit. He said "plans for the future" will be made then.

THE STRIKERS ran into a series of court injunctions yesterday limiting the number of pickets. The court orders were signed in Macomb, Ingham, Huron and Lapeer counties after a succession of pitched battles as strikers sought to bar milk truck deliveries to the Detroit area.

During the strike, the Michigan Milk Producers Assn., to which members of the rebel Fair Share group belong, voted to demand a boost in the wholesale price of milk from $4.41 per hundred pounds to $5.

The majority of Detroit area dairies, supplied by the producers association, granted the producers' price increase. The Fair Shakers demanded $6.50 cwt.

Several creameries as a result raised the price of milk a cent and a half a quart.

opinion that our best educational interests are in cooperation; we oppose every effort to separate rural and city activities.

"As you undoubtedly know, we are taking steps toward a permanent alliance with your schools.

"Let us say at this point that we will realize that you have been most tolerant and generous in providing for our tuition students in the past.

"These students most certainly desire to continue with their urban classmates and the teaching staff you have provided.

"The parents and rural adults definitely prefer to annex to your district so as to provide the advantages for our children that your school offers.

"We hope you can see your way clear to accept the rural area which desires to annex to your district when those legal matters which must be encountered have been passed.

"Enclosed is a copy of the request for annexation which representatives of the Rural Parents Association presented to the Fayette County Board of Education at its regular meeting last Saturday for the Rural Parents Association."

The letter carried signatures of 10 residents of rural Fayette County: Preston Dray, W. K. Robinson, Wayne Cunningham, Glenn Grim, James McWilliams, Martin O'Cull, Alfred Hagler, E. M. Mason, Marting, Richard W. Babb and Ray French.

THE BULLETIN was unanimously approved for mailing to all rural boxholders in the Washington C. H., Jeffersonville and Bloomington postal districts.

Future bulletins announced as "in preparation" will be titled "Misleading Representation of County Tax Valuations" and "Advantages of a 6-3-3 All-County City School Program."

Wayne Cunningham presided over the meeting, during which the RPA drafted a letter to the individual members of the county school board thanking them for their courtesy in hearing RPA spokesmen at last Saturday's board meeting.

Also in the letter was a further statement of the RPA position. The letter was approved unanimously and signed by 79 members of the association.

Also drafted at the session was an advertisement to be run in Thursday's Record-Herald. The ad is intended to answer one published by the Miami Trace school board, outlining the smaller curricular advantages of Washington C. H. High School and the county schools.

The majority of Detroit area dairies, supplied by the producers association, granted the producers' price increase. The Fair Shakers demanded $6.50 cwt.

Several creameries as a result raised the price of milk a cent and a half a quart.

THE STRIKERS ran into a series of court injunctions yesterday limiting the number of pickets. The court orders were signed in Macomb, Ingham, Huron and Lapeer counties after a succession of pitched battles as strikers sought to bar milk truck deliveries to the Detroit area.

During the strike, the Michigan Milk Producers Assn., to which members of the rebel Fair Share group belong, voted to demand a boost in the wholesale price of milk from $4.41 per hundred pounds to $5.

Spinster In Loan Firm Cited In Theft Of Near $3 Million

NORFOLK, Va. (P) — Miss Minnie Mangum will go on trial here next month for stealing nearly $3 million from her loan company employers over a 21-year span.

If convicted on all of the 16 counts cited by the grand jury, which indicted her yesterday, the spinster could be sentenced to a maximum of 145 years in prison. The minimum would be 24.

Added together, the indictments for grand larceny, embezzlement and forgery accused "Miss Minnie," well known for years for her largesse to relatives and friends, of making off with $2,884,957.06 from the Commonwealth Building and Loan Assn.

Despite its magnitude, the Mangum case is far from the largest of its kind recorded in this country. In 1930, a loss of $8 million topped the Guaranty Building and Loan Assn. of Hollywood and one of its officials, Gilbert H. Beesmyer, was convicted of grand theft and sentenced to 40 years imprisonment. Beesmyer was paroled in 1940.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I have a problem on which I need help, it concerns my younger son. My husband and I married 25 years ago, when we were teenagers—and emotionally immature. I realize now. Even then I knew we had "troubles," and begged him to let's get help, but he refused.

I developed a terrible guilt complex and severe nightmares. I was deathly afraid of my own mistakes and failures, and feared to make friends or let anyone get close to me, lest they learn how inferior I was.

Meanwhile my husband was going from one affair to another, drinking, leaving home, returning, changing jobs, abusing and threatening me—and blaming me for all of it. Into this terrible turmoil were born two wonderful boys. Finally, when they had reached teen-

Gun Club Meeting Here Over Weekend

Another capacity crowd is expected to attend the two-day meeting of the Central Ohio Gun and Indian Relic Collectors Association, which will be held at Memorial Hall here Saturday and Sunday.

Exhibitors are expected to come here from several states. Several thousand guns and other articles will probably be exhibited and offered for sale or trade.

The exhibit is open to the public without charge. Lunch will be served throughout both days.

The subject of the sponsorship of a baseball team of 13, 14 and 15 year-old-boys in the Babe Ruth League which is in the process of being formed was discussed. The group decided to sponsor one of the teams if the League materializes.

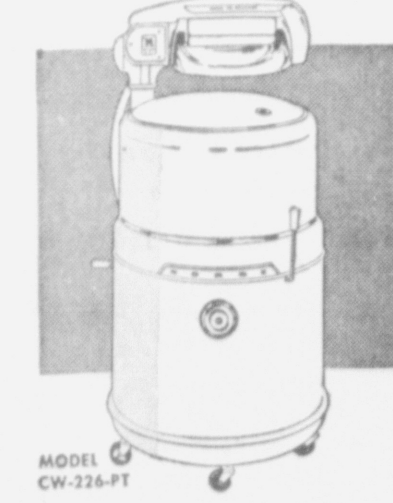

The next meeting will be May 7 with Paul Mohr in charge of the program.

4-H Beef Tours Are Set Here

32 Stops Planned In Pair Of Tours

Boys and girls who have undertaken steer projects for their 4-H club program this year are going to have an opportunity not only to show off their own calves but also to take a look at those of other 4-H club members next Saturday and the Saturday after that.

Through the Extension Service, headed by W. W. Montgomery, the county agent, two 4-H club steer tours have been arranged for successive Saturdays.

A total of 32 stops have been listed for the two tours, 14 on the first one next Saturday and 18 on the second one the following Saturday.

The tour next Saturday will cover the northern half of the county and the one the following Saturday will be over the southern half.

When they get back from the two tours, the boys and girls will have seen around 70 calves, any one of which could wind up as the champion of the Fayette County Fair and go to the auction to be bought at a fancy price.

Word has gone out to the 4-H clubbers to take a sack lunch on the tours. Apples and milk are to be furnished.

The tours are to start from the Extension Service office at 9 o'clock each Saturday and continue over a itinerary that has been mapped out in detail.

It will be recalled that rainfall in February was 4.73 inches, or 1.99 inches above normal for the month.

Normal rainfall for March is 3.19 inches and normal temperature is 40.06 degrees average. Last month the average temperature was 44.58 degrees.

The mean maximum temperature was 60.13 degrees and the mean minimum was 29.03 degrees.

During March 3-inch snows fell on successive days, on March 16 and March 17.

Heaviest rainfall during any day in March was 1.08 inches on March 29.

Proposed new jet airliners will go from New York to Los Angeles in four hours.

Trio Is Accused Of Defrauding Bank

TOLEDO (P)—Three men pleaded innocent before U. S. District Judge Frank L. Klobb yesterday to federal indictments charging they conspired to defraud the People's State Bank of Archbold of $50,000.

Indicted were Maurice King, 34; his brother, Emerson, 29, both of Archbold, and Chester H. Miller, former cashier of the bank.

Assistant U. S. District Attorney Richard M. Colasurd said Miller covered checks issued on the bank by the King brothers for the purchase of road machinery in 1952.

He added that Miller listed a $19,000 shortage as a loan.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I have a problem on which I need help; it concerns my younger son. My husband and I married 25 years ago, when we were teenagers—and emotionally immature. I realize now. Even then I knew we had "troubles," and begged him to let's get help, but he refused.

I developed a terrible guilt complex and severe nightmares. I was deathly afraid of my own mistakes and failures, and feared to make friends or let anyone get close to me, lest they learn how inferior I was.

Meanwhile my husband was going from one affair to another, drinking, leaving home, returning, changing jobs, abusing and threatening me—and blaming me for all of it. Into this terrible turmoil were born two wonderful boys. Finally, when they had reached teen-

The meetings will start Saturday morning, last until 9 P. M. and be resumed Sunday morning and last until late afternoon.

Exhibitors are expected to come here from several states. Several thousand guns and other articles will probably be exhibited and offered for sale or trade.

The exhibit is open to the public without charge. Lunch will be served throughout both days.

Insurance Group Here Holds Meeting

The Fayette County Insurance Association held its regular meeting Monday night at The Country Club Drive-In Restaurant.

The regular business meeting was presided over by the president, Paul Pennington, with eight members in attendance.

Discussion regarding the city fire protection followed with a report from the committee of Tom Mark, Richard Willis, and Mac Dews, Sr., who had been appointed to further study the recommendations as pointed out at a recent meeting with The Ohio Inspection Bureau representative.

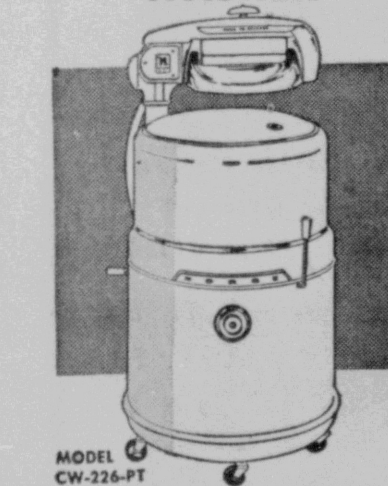

The subject of the sponsorship of a baseball team of 13, 14 and 15 year-old-boys in the Babe Ruth League which is in the process of being formed was discussed. The group decided to sponsor one of the teams if the League materializes. The next meeting will be May 7 with Paul Mohr in charge of the program.

4-H Beef Tours Are Set Here

32 Stops Planned In Pair Of Tours

Boys and girls who have undertaken steer projects for their 4-H club program this year are going to have an opportunity not only to show off their own calves but also to take a look at those of other 4-H club members next Saturday and the Saturday after that.

Through the Extension Service, headed by W. W. Montgomery, the county agent, two 4-H club steer tours have been arranged for successive Saturdays.

A total of 32 stops have been listed for the two tours, 14 on the first one next Saturday and 18 on the second one the following Saturday.

The tour next Saturday will cover the northern half of the county and the one the following Saturday will be over the southern half.

When they get back from the two tours, the boys and girls will have seen around 70 calves, any one of which could wind up as the champion of the Fayette County Fair and go to the auction to be bought at a fancy price.

Word has gone out to the 4-H clubbers to take a sack lunch on the tours. Apples and milk are to be furnished.

The tours are to start from the Extension Service office at 9 o'clock each Saturday and continue over a itinerary that has been mapped out in detail.

THE FIRST stop on the first tour next Saturday will be at the home of Alvin Carroll on the Greenfield Pike and from there the tourists are to go to the homes of:

Carolyn Carr and Robby Hagler on the Jamestown Pike;
Janie Smith on the West Lancaster Road;
Larry Simmons on the Carr's Mill Road;
Teddy and Marcia Craig on the Parrott's Station Road;

Man With A Hoe First "Do It Yourself"

It does not require any person of extraordinary perception to note that more people than ever before here in Fayette County have had less manual labor to perform than ever before in the last few years.

This community is no different than others. The reason for it all is because our country, with which too many people find fault without real justification, is the most mechanically advanced country the world ever has known.

Perhaps that is the reason for some special sort of American complex, because in so many cases life has been made so easy.

Maybe that is also the reason why such a vast number of homeowners, here and elsewhere over the nation voluntarily assume such a heavy workload of such duties as garden-making every spring. Or, maybe it is a real pleasure for them. Strange to say, however, in this age of automation and countless new gadgets, they seem to prefer for the most part, the simplest of tools, pretty much the same as were used a generation or two before.

Maybe this complex idea also is the reason so many people tire themselves out in their vacation recreations to a degree that they come back home apparently "fagged out".

One local man this week, in telling us that he could hardly wait to get in all the working out of daylight hours after he left his regular job, to work his garden, perhaps hit upon the reason when he said "You know the man with the hoe and rake was the first to adopt the 'do it yourself' movement."

Consider the huge investment not only of time but of cash made in the United States these days in gardening and home landscaping!

It is estimated that $1.5 billion is spent in America every year for gardening supplies—hardware equipment, fertilizers, fungicides, and insecticides, grass, flower, and vegetable seeds. One out of every four Americans is a home gardener. Many grow vegetables (there are about 14 million in the category) but most concentrate on flowers. Flower seed production in the United States, not including the output in bulbs, runs to almost $50 million a year. The statistics on sales of fertilizers, lawn furniture, and gardening machinery are equally impressive, and the totals are rising sharply year by year.

There could be such a thing as overdoing a good thing. Many gardening enthusiasts, once early spring resolutions wear thin, wonder why they ever got so deeply involved in flowers, grass, outdoor fireplaces, shrubbery, trees, patios, and the hundred and one projects they scheduled in March and April. Yet by and large, gardening and landscaping become labors of enduring worth, satisfying and enjoyable—when done in moderation.

BVDs: Remember Them Dad?

NEW YORK (AP)—In a Broadway show of recent date, there was a joke that sometimes drew a laugh, and sometimes a ghastly blank, depending on the average age of the audience. It was built around a reference to BVDs.

Does that take you back? Does it carry you back to the Stutz Bearcat and the Stanley Steamer? Can you still see Wallace Reid and Mary Miles Minter and Baby Peggy and Charles Ray? Does it remind you of meatless and wheatless days, a song called "The Rose of No Man's Land," a place called Chateau Thierry, "Over the Top," Woodrow Wilson's 14 points, and Charles G. Dawes' upside-down pipe? Somehow though, while we weren't looking, a whole new generation has come along and these youngsters find nothing automatically funny about BVDs.

Well, the firm is celebrating its 80th anniversary this year, and the officers are having a lot of fun looking back. The trademark came from the initials of the founders, Bradley, Voorhees and Day.

Somebody coined the slogan, "Next to myself I like BVD best." The ads were illustrated with long, lean gentlemen, telephoning, reading letters, chatting or just looking pleased, all in underwear. I believe Howard Chandler Christy drew them, and they were beautiful guys with profiles and crisp, curly hair. Wow! Then somewhere around 1916 or 1917, the present-day shirt-and-shorts began to move in on the orthodox BVDs. Nobody is quite sure why.

Some of the officers believe it was just the public being fickle, as usual. Others think it may have had some connection with World War I and the talk about "Cooties."

A "cootie," junior, was a louse that infested the trenches, and made his home in the seams of the soldiers' uniforms. In due course, the one-piece suit was definitely passed in popularity. However, about a million of these are still sold every year.

Guess who buys them. Lumberjacks and north woodsmen, mainly, the firm says.

It All Just Goes To Show---What?

The wise politicians did not say before the event that Kefauver would make a good showing in Minnesota. Of course, in due time everybody became a wise man but the truth is that few expected Stevenson to be trounced and none announced it. Perhaps an exception may be made of Harry Truman. He gave every appearance of having turned his back on Adlai Stevenson. He was particularly annoyed with Stevenson's gentle opposition to the Eisenhower administration. Harry Truman likes his campaigns to be tough and even ugly. He is a fighting cock. It was Kefauver who took the hint from Truman. He attacked the Eisenhower administration with all he had.

If it is true, as the politicians now say, that Kefauver was the choice of Republicans who voted in the Democratic primaries in Minnesota where such nonsense is permissible, then the matter is very serious, indeed. For it means that in the farm areas, Republicans are registering a protest vote. If this is so, they picked the punching Kefauver rather than the sotto voce Stevenson.

But what is it a protest vote against? The professional politicians are too ready to say that it is a protest against the Benson agricultural policies, particularly against flexible rather than rigid price supports and it may be so. But the Kefauver victory is also a defeat for the governor, Orville Freeman, and for Senator Hubert Humphrey who favored Benson farm policies. In a measure, the vote for Kefauver would be indicative that the opposition was to a system rather than to some particular policy. Certainly, the Freeman-Humphrey group in Minnesota has never supported "middle-of-the-road" theory of government. It is therefore glib to say that what the Minnesotans protested against was the Benson agricultural policy, although this may have been a factor. It is usual for experts to try to make every situation clear and simple, when actually it is confused and complex.

Minnesotans have established

themselves as independent folk, not too readily corralled by politicians. They are farmers who have a socialistic tradition in politics but a private enterprise tradition in economics. It was in this state that the only farmer-labor party developed into a political entity of major significance. The men who go to the Senate from Minnesota are often regarded as radicals compared to the liberals from New York or the conservatives from the South. Hubert Humphrey, one of the current senators from Minnesota who is often regarded as a radical, is a former college professor, a man of excellent education with a profound knowledge of American institutions. Despite Minnesota's reputation for radicalism, the communists have not been able to establish themselves at this state as successfully as they have in many others, particularly New York or California. The prevailing Scandinavian origin of much of the population of this state explains the independence, the seriousness and the land-loving character of its people.

And no matter how you look at it, the Kefauver vote in the Democratic primaries is a protest against things as they are. The Democrats voted against the Democratic leadership in the state; the Republicans who voted in the Democratic primaries voted against the Eisenhower administration. Kefauver attacked both the Democratic leadership and the Eisenhower administration. Stevenson was supported by the Democratic leadership and he is soft on the Eisenhower administration, particularly the foreign policy. Nevertheless, it is too simple and probably untrue to reach the conclusion that the Kefauver vote was a protest against both the Democratic leadership in the state and the Eisenhower administration in the nation. It may be true that many Minnesotans just preferred Kefauver to Stevenson.

In New Hampshire, there was a similar protest against the policies but not the policies of the Eisenhower administration. And both these primaries, analyzed in terms of popular responses and public relations rather than in terms of candidates, give the impression that it is necessary to revise the general judgment that the election was settled when Ike said he would run again. Maybe the picture is not as clear as all that at this point. The Republicans can lose from overconfidence; they did in 1948. Therefore it is still possible that in 1956 we may have a real campaign, a fighting campaign with Harry Truman on the podium.

Cancer Battle Aided By Early Detection

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
Cancer is an all or nothing disease. Find it early and you can very often be cured. Let it go and it will kill you. It's that simple.

With the American Cancer Society conducting its campaign for $25,000,000 this month to aid the cancer battle, I think it is an appropriate time to give you some detailed information which might help save your life.

Cancer of the lip, tongue and mouth is fairly easy to detect. Usually the victim himself notices it. For this reason deaths from this type of malignancy are relatively few.

To protect yourself, however, you should be well acquainted with some of the causes and symptoms. If you know what to watch for, you can get prompt treatment.

Cancer of the mouth and lip seems to show a sex preference—these types are more likely to strike men. On the lip it affects the lower more often than the upper.

Dental Hygiene

If you use smoking or chewing tobacco without restraint—and without proper dental hygiene—you may be a candidate for cancer of the mouth. Habitual drinking of excessively hot liquids might be a predisposing factor. So may jagged teeth or poorly fitting false teeth, both of which are apt to cause irritation.

Too much heat or overexposure to the sun seem to help development of lip cancer. Farmers and sailors, who work outdoors a lot, are often victims. So are smokers who customarily hold the hot short end of a cigar in their lips or who use old-fashioned clay pipes.

The first indication of lip cancer may be a crack which does not heal, or a wart like scabby lump which does not disappear. A bleeding sore may develop from either of these beginnings even though there is no pain. Eventually, the flesh at the base of the sore may become swollen.

Cancer of Gum

Similar symptoms usually appear with cancer of the gum or inner cheek. Running or wartlike sores anywhere in the mouth are signals to see your doctor right away. So are soft, puffy gums which bleed easily, often for no apparent reason.

The tongue also may be subjected to a sore that does not heal. Or maybe a lump will develop just under the surface. This lump may be topped with a white, painless scab, or a painful open sore.

Another danger sign is sudden paralysis of the tongue, especially if the paralysis is accompanied by pain. Bleeding or discharge of odorless pus might be another signal.

Any of these symptoms should send you scurrying to your doctor.

Or, maybe it is a real pleasure for them. Strange to say, however, in this age of automation and countless new gadgets, they seem to prefer for the most part, the simplest of tools, pretty much the same as were used a generation or two before.

Maybe this complex idea also is the reason so many people tire themselves out in their vacation recreations to a degree that they come back home apparently "fagged out".

One local man this week, in telling us that he could hardly wait to get in all the working out of daylight hours after he left his regular job, to work his garden, perhaps hit upon the reason when he said "You know the man with the hoe and rake was the first to adopt the 'do it yourself' movement."

Consider the huge investment not only of time but of cash made in the United States these days in gardening and home landscaping!

It is estimated that $1.5 billion is spent in America every year for gardening supplies—hardware equipment, fertilizers, fungicides, and insecticides, grass, flower, and vegetable seeds. One out of every four Americans is a home gardener. Many grow vegetables (there are about 14 million in the category) but most concentrate on flowers. Flower-seed production in the United States, not including the output in bulbs, runs to almost $50 million a year. The statistics on sales of fertilizers, lawn furniture, and gardening machinery are equally impressive, and the totals are rising sharply year by year.

There could be such a thing as overdoing a good thing. Many gardening enthusiasts, once early spring resolutions wear thin, wonder why they ever got so deeply involved in flowers, grass, outdoor fireplaces, shrubbery, trees, patios, and the hundred and one projects they scheduled in March and April. Yet by and large, gardening and landscaping become labors of enduring worth, satisfying and enjoyable—when done in moderation.

BVDs: Remember Them Dad?

NEW YORK (AP)—In a Broadway show of recent date, there was a joke that sometimes drew a laugh, and sometimes a ghastly blank, depending on the average age of the audience. It was about BVDs.

Does that take you back?

Does it carry you back to the Stutz Bearcat and the Stanley Steamer? Can you still see Wallace Reid and Mary Miles Minter and Baby Peggy and Charles Ray? Does it remind you of meatless and wheat-less days, a song called "The Rose of No Man's Land," a place called Chateau Thierry, "Over the Top," Woodrow Wilson's 14 points, and Charles G. Dawes' upside-down pipe?

Somehow though, while we weren't looking, a whole new generation has come along and these youngsters find nothing automatically funny about BVDs.

Well, the firm is celebrating its 80th anniversary this year, and the officers are having a lot of fun looking back.

The trademark came from the initials of the founders, Bradley, Voorhees and Day.

Somebody coined the slogan, "Next to myself I like BVD best."

The ads were illustrated with long, lean gentlemen, telephoning, reading letters, chatting or just looking pleased, all in underwear. I believe Howard Chandler Christy drew them, and they were beautiful guys with profiles and crisp, curly hair. Wow!

Then somewhere around 1916

By Relman Morin
(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

or 1917, the present-day shirt-and-shorts began to move in on the orthodox BVDs. Nobody is quite sure why.

Some of the officers believe it was just the public being fickle, as usual. Others think it may have had some connection with World War I and the talk about "Cooties."

A "cootie," junior, was a louse that infested the trenches, and made his home in the seams of the soldiers' uniforms.

In due course, the one-piece suit was definitely passed in popularity. However, about a million of these are still sold every year.

Guess who buys them. Lumbarjacks and north woodsmen, mainly, the firm says.

It All Just Goes To Show---What?

The wise politicians did not say before the event that Kefauver would make a good showing in Minnesota. Of course, in due time everybody became a wise man but the truth is that few expected Stevenson to be trounced and none announced it. Perhaps an exception may be made of Harry Truman. He gave every appearance of having turned his back on Adlai Stevenson. He was particularly annoyed with Stevenson's gentle opposition to the Eisenhower administration. Harry Truman likes his campaigns to be tough and even ugly. He is a fighting cock. It was Kefauver who took the hint from Truman. He attacked the Eisenhower administration with all he had.

If it is true, as the politicians now say, that Kefauver was the choice of Republicans who voted in the Democratic primaries in Minnesota where such nonsense is permissible, then the matter is very serious, indeed. For it means that in the farm areas, Republicans are registering a protest vote. If this is so, they picked the punching Kefauver rather than the sotto voce Stevenson.

But what is it a protest vote against? The professional politicians are too ready to say that it is a protest against the Benson agricultural policies, particularly against flexible rather than rigid price supports and it may be so. But the Kefauver victory is also a defeat for the governor, Orville Freeman, and for Senator Hubert Humphrey who favored Stevenson but opposed Benson farm policies. In a measure, the vote for Kefauver would be indicative that the opposition was to a system rather than to some particular policy. Certainly, the Freeman-Humphrey group in Minnesota has never supported that indefinable Eisenhower "middle-of-the-road" theory of government. It is therefore glib to say that what the Minnesotans protested against was the Benson agricultural policy, although this may have been a factor. It is usual for experts to try to make every situation clear and simple, when actually it is confused and complex.

Minnesotans have established

themselves as independent folk, not too readily corralled by politicians. They are farmers who have a socialistic tradition in politics but a private enterprise tradition in economics. It was in this state that the only farmer-labor party developed into a political entity of major significance. The men who go to the Senate from Minnesota are often regarded as radicals compared to the liberals from New York or the conservatives from the South. Hubert Humphrey, one of the current senators from Minnesota, who is often regarded as a radical, is a former college professor, a man of excellent education with a profound knowledge of American institutions. Despite Minnesota's reputation for radicalism, the communists have not been able to establish themselves in that state as successfully as they have in many others, particularly New York or California. The prevailing Scandinavian origin of much of the population of this state explains the independence the seriousness and the land-loving character of its people.

And no matter how you look at it, the Kefauver vote in the Democratic primaries is a protest against things as they are. The Democrats voted against the

By George Sokolsky

Democratic leadership in the state; the Republicans who voted in the Democratic primaries voted against the Eisenhower administration. Kefauver attacked both the Democratic leadership and the Eisenhower administration. Stevenson was supported by the Democratic leadership and he is soft on the Eisenhower administration, particularly the foreign policy. Nevertheless, it is too simple and probably untrue to reach the conclusion that the Kefauver vote was a protest against both the Democratic leadership in the state and the Eisenhower administration in the nation. It may be true that many Minnesotans just preferred Kefauver to Stevenson.

In New Hampshire, there was a similar protest against the politics but not the policies of the Eisenhower administration. And both these primaries, analyzed in terms of popular responses and public relations rather than in terms of candidates, give the impression that it is necessary to revise the general judgment that the election was settled when Ike said he would run again. Maybe the picture is not as clear as all that at this point. The Republicans can lose from overconfidence; they did in 1948. Therefore it is still possible that in 1956 we may have a real campaign, a fighting campaign with Harry Truman on the podium.

The youngsters ran to the rear of the truck. Mrs. Reeves eased the truck forward. She felt a bump and found Beverly apparently had fallen under a wheel.

Cancer Battle Aided By Early Detection

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Cancer is an all or nothing disease. Find it early and you can very often be cured. Let it go and it will kill you. It's that simple.

With the American Cancer Society conducting its campaign for $25,000,000 this month to aid the cancer battle, I think it is an appropriate time to give you some detailed information which might help save your life.

Cancer of the lip, tongue and mouth is fairly easy to detect. Usually the victim himself notices it. For this reason deaths from this type of malignancy are relatively few.

To protect yourself, however, you should be well acquainted with some of the causes and symptoms. If you know what to watch for, you can get prompt treatment.

Cancer of the mouth and lip seems to show a sex preference—these types are more likely to strike men. On the lip it affects the lower more often than the upper.

Dental Hygiene

If you use smoking or chewing tobacco without restraint—and without proper dental hygiene—you may be a candidate for cancer of the mouth. Habitual drinking of excessively hot liquids might be a predisposing factor. So may jagged teeth or poorly fitting false teeth, both of which are apt to cause irritation.

Too much heat or overexposure to the sun seem to help development of lip cancer. Farmers and sailors, who work outdoors a lot, are often victims. So are smokers who customarily hold the hot short end of a cigar in their lips or who use old-fashioned clay pipes.

The first indication of lip cancer may be a crack which does not heal, or a wart like scabby lump which does not disappear. A bleeding sore may develop from either of these beginnings even though there is no pain. Eventually, the flesh at the base of the sore may become swollen.

Cancer of Gum

Similar symptoms usually appear with cancer of the gum or inner cheek. Running or wartlike sores anywhere in the mouth are signals to see your doctor right away. So are soft, puffy gums which bleed easily, often for no apparent reason.

The tongue also may be subjected to a sore that does not heal. Or maybe a lump will develop just under the surface. This lump may be topped with a white painless scab, or a painful open sore.

Another danger sign is sudden paralysis of the tongue, especially if the paralysis is accompanied by pain. Bleeding or discharge of odoriferous pus might be another signal.

Any of these symptoms should send you scurrying to your doctor.

Nude Portrait Decision Chided

ROME (AP)—A nude portrait may hang with propriety in a museum but be improper in a night club.

So ruled Judge Francesco Greco after five months of contemplation. He allowed 30 days for removal of the nude painting of German actress Lisa Schneider from a night club wall.

The Italian artist, Novella Parigini, said she would paint a nude portrait of herself to replace that of Miss Schneider on the night club wall, and chortled:

"I want to see whether the judge will rule I'm violating my own decency."

Absent Voters May Obtain Ballots Soon

Persons who will be unavoidably absent from their county and more than 10 miles from their voting precinct on primary election day, May 8, may make application for an absent voter's ballot after April 8. Such a ballot may be voted in person at the Fayette County Board of Elections or may be mailed.

April 8 also is the first date when Boards of Elections may accept applications for disabled voter's ballots.

The deadline for applications for both absent and disabled voter primary ballots is 4 P. M., May 3, and the ballots must be in the hands of the clerk of the Board of Elections by noon on May 4.

Applications for ballots from members of Armed Forces must be postmarked no later than noon of May 5 and ballots must be delivered to the clerk of the board by noon of election day.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, however, points out that applications should be made early, especially by service men and women in distant places, in order to allow time for mailing of the ballots both ways. Close relatives of service personnel may make applications on behalf of service men and women who need not be registered to vote in Ohio.

Health For All

SULPHUR AND MOLASSES

In Grandmother's day, this was the season for sulphur and molasses. The whole family would line up to swallow spoonfuls of the horrid medicine from the big brown bottle. This was supposed to build up blood thinned by the long winter and protect against the hazards of spring.

Maybe a stiff dose of sulphur and molasses could temporarily jolt an adolescent out of the day dreaming that goes with the season. Probably it had no other useful effect. But Grandmother was not far wrong. Spring does have its special hazards, and stern measures are often necessary to deal with them.

This is the season of spring colds, brought on by man's eternal optimism. We all know that beautiful April skies can turn gray and pour down drenching rain within an hour. We know that temperatures can up and down like a see-saw. But who prepares for such weather? We expect and dress for nothing but the best. Women shiver in their new spring coats and slosh through puddles in open-toed shoes. The farmer can't stop his ploughing and run for cover with every shower. The small boy loses his rubbers. His older sister wouldn't be caught dead with an umbrella.

Mother can't spend all her time chasing after these delinquents. She might as well take it for granted that they will be foolish, and try to build up their natural resistance to colds. She can see to it that every member of the family is getting a proper diet, replete with the "protective" foods: milk, eggs, meat, green vegetables. She can make sure that everyone is getting enough sleep. If any member of the family seems "run down" and complains of tiredness, a visit to the doctor is in order. Children with colds should be kept at home. A day of quiet rest will usually ward off serious developments.

Too soon spring will pass. We owe it to ourselves to be in condition to enjoy every minute of it.

ocrats contend the magic of President Eisenhower's name has worn thin since 1952. Republicans say it hasn't and back their belief by grabbing for the president's coattails.

At stake in Illinois are 27 electoral votes, a senatorial post, a governorship and 25 house seats now occupied by 13 republicans and 12 Democrats.

Illinois has a presidential nomination candidate in Adlai E. Stevenson who faces reduction to a "favorite son" role—with most of the state's 64 convention nominating votes to trade for the kind of candidate he wants—unless he wins the forthcoming Florida and California primaries.

Stevenson's loss to Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee in the Minnesota primary was a stunning blow to the Illinois Democratic organization now headed, for all practical purposes, by Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago.

Daley, who is Cook County Democratic chairman, professes to read into the Minnesota Democratic primary vote total—which far outstripped that in the no-contest affair—an indication that the people of the Midwest are "inclined to vote the Democratic ticket."

Daley dismisses Stevenson's defeat as one of the lumps likely to be accumulated by any active candidate. Stevenson speaks of the "enormous cross-over" of Republicans and says he was "out-premised" by Kefauver, particularly in the farm price support field.

Four years ago, Stevenson lost Illinois by 443,000 votes.

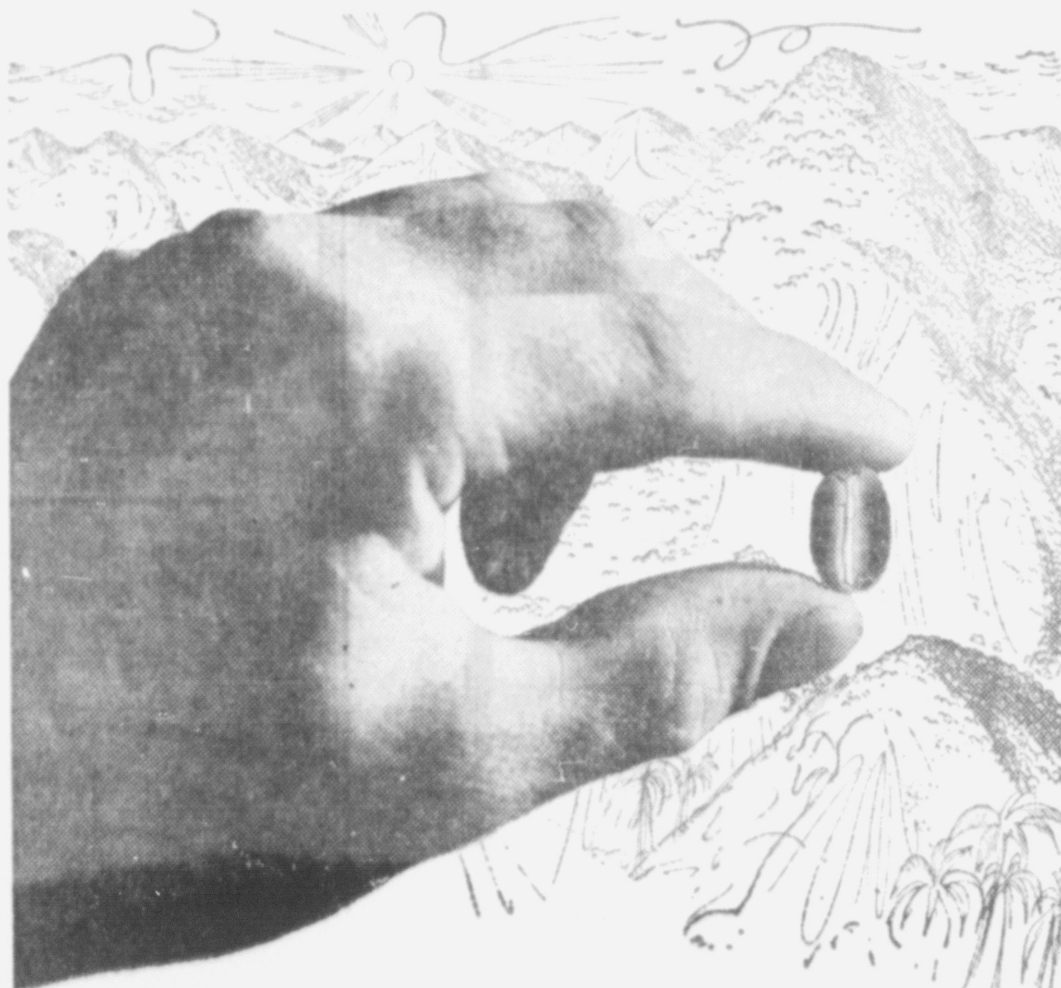

To build Stevenson up again, the party organization already has begun pouring on the coal for a complimentary vote for him in the April 10 primary.

Stevenson's name is the only one entered on the Democratic presidential ballot. But Herbert Lockwood, Illinois manager for Kefauver, said he would not be surprised if there is a write-in vote for the Tennessee senator.

This will be limited largely to down-state precincts, since it is difficult for the voter to write in any candidate on the voting machines in use in Chicago. Lockwood said there had been no organized drive for Kefauver, who has steered clear of Illinois.

Letters To Editor

Washington C. H.
March 31, 1956

Editor
Record-Herald

Dear Sir:
This is an open letter to the Miami-Trace Board of Education and their "Study Committee". Last fall you presented to the voters of Miami Trace District a bond issue of $1,655,000. This included $248,000 for equipment for new and old buildings and $442,000 for remodeling and rehabilitation of existing elementary schools (see advertisement in Record-Herald Nov. 5, 1955, page 9).

At that time Jeffersonville and Bloomington were not a part of your district.

On Friday, March 23 we read in the Record-Herald the following report of the 29-man committee's observation:

"The facilities—the buildings and equipment—were found to be in 'acceptable condition.' Perrill commented that the committee found that some repairs needed to be made but he added that most of them could be classed as a minor nature."

"The one thing that drew fire from the committee was the lighting system—the lighting system was applied to all of the schools. It was called "inadequate" in a blanket description.

"Some of the schools need new equipment, such as desks and seats for the pupils," a committee man said.

Do we need $442,000 worth of lights and desks?
Is $442,000 considered a minor repair item?

Now let's have the truth.

Did the need for $442,000 in repairs really exist last fall? If it existed then why couldn't this committee see it this week? Aren't they competent to discover needs?

If the need did not really exist last fall why did you ask the voters for a blank check for $442,000.

Perhaps my information is entirely wrong due to that naughty old Record-Herald misquoting you again.

(Signed)
C. E. Rhoad.

Illinois Democrats Hoping To Regain State Leadership

CHICAGO (AP)—Democrats are playing a political parlay, based on a refurbished Chicago organization, coal area unemployment and farm unrest, in their efforts to carry Illinois in the November election.

In this midland center of industry and corn-hog farming, Democrats contend the magic of President Eisenhower's name has worn thin since 1952. Republicans say it hasn't and back their belief by grabbing for the president's coattails.

Absent Voters May Obtain Ballots Soon

Persons who will be unavoidably absent from their county and more than 10 miles from their voting precinct on primary election day, May 8, may make application for an absent voter's ballot after April 8. Such a ballot may be voted in person at the Fayette County Board of Elections or may be mailed.

April 8 also is the first date when Boards of Elections may accept applications for disabled voter's ballots.

The deadline for applications for both absent and disabled voter primary ballots is 4 P. M., May 3, and the ballots must be in the hands of the clerk of the Board of Elections by noon on May 4.

Applications for ballots from members of Armed Forces must be postmarked no later than noon of May 5 and ballots must be delivered to the clerk of the board by noon of election day.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, however, points out that applications should be made early, especially by service men and women in distant places, in order to allow time for mailing of the ballots both ways. Close relatives of service personnel may make applications on behalf of service men and women who need not be registered to vote in Ohio.

Health For All

SULPHUR AND MOLASSES

In Grandmother's day, this was the season for sulphur and molasses. The whole family would line up to swallow spoonfuls of the horrid medicine from the big brown bottle. This was supposed to build up blood thinned by the long winter and protect against the hazards of spring.

Maybe a stiff dose of sulphur and molasses could temporarily jolt an adolescent out of the day dreaming that goes with the season. Probably it had no other useful effect. But Grandmother was not far wrong. Spring does have its special hazards, and stern measures are often necessary to deal with them.

This is the season of spring colds, brought on by man's eternal optimism. We all know that beautiful April skies can turn gray and pour down drenching rain within an hour. We know that temperatures can up and down like a see-saw. But who prepares for such weather? We expect and dress for nothing but the best. Women shiver in their new spring coats and slush through puddles in open-toed shoes. The farmer can't stop his ploughing and run for cover with every shower. The small boy loses his rubbers. His older sister wouldn't be caught dead with an umbrella.

Mother can't spend all her time chasing after these delinquents. She might as well take it for granted that they will be foolish, and try to build up their natural resistance to colds. She can see to it that every member of the family is getting a proper diet, replete with the "protective" foods: milk, eggs, meat green vegetables. She can make sure that everyone is getting enough sleep. If any member of the family seems "run down" and complains of tiredness, a visit to the doctor is in order. Children with colds should be kept at home. A day of quiet rest will usually ward off serious developments.

Too soon spring will pass. We owe it to ourselves to be in condition to enjoy every minute of it.

At stake in Illinois are 27 electoral votes, a senatorial post, a governorship and 25 house seats now occupied by 13 republicans and 12 Democrats.

Illinois has a presidential nomination candidate in Adlai E. Stevenson who faces reduction to a "favorite son" role—with most of the state's 64 convention nominating votes to trade for the kind of candidate he wants—unless he wins the forthcoming Florida and California primaries.

Stevenson's loss to Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee in the Minnesota primary was a stunning blow to the Illinois Democratic organization now headed, for all practical purposes, by Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago.

Daley, who is Cook County Democratic chairman, professes to read into the Minnesota Democratic primary vote total—which far outstripped that in the no-contest affair—an indication that the people of the Midwest are "inclined to vote the Democratic ticket."

Daley dismisses Stevenson's defeat as one of the lumps likely to be accumulated by any active candidate. Stevenson speaks of the "enormous cross-over" of Republicans and says he was "outpromised" by Kefauver, particularly in the farm price support field.

Four years ago, Stevenson lost Illinois by 443,000 votes.

To build Stevenson up again, the party organization already has begun pouring on the coal for a complimentary vote for him in the April 10 primary.

Stevenson's name is the only one entered on the Democratic presidential ballot. But Herbert Lockwood, Illinois manager for Kefauver, said he would not be surprised if there is a write-in vote for the Tennessee senator.

This will be limited largely to down-state precincts, since it is difficult for the voter to write in any candidate on the voting machines in use in Chicago. Lockwood said there had been no organized drive for Kefauver, who has steered clear of Illinois.

Ohio Beer Prices Slated For Boost

CINCINNATI (AP)—The executive secretary of the Buckeye Retail Liquor and Beer Dealers' Assn., said here yesterday the retail price of bottled beer may go up and the 10-cent glass of draught beer may be abolished because of increased wholesale beer prices.

James C. Canning, after a conference with association members here, said that the cost of bottled beer will likely increase from 20 to 25 cents and "so-called" premium beer from 25 to 30 cents.

TWO CONTRASTING pictures have been booked for Wednesday and Thursday at the Fayette Theater. One "The Toughest Man Alive," stars Dane Clark (above) as the tough man in a brawling world. The other, "The Long Gray Line," is a drama of life at West Point. In the leading roles are Robert Francis, Donald Crisp, Ward Bond, Betsy Palmer and Phil Carey.

Letters To Editor

Washington C. H.
March 31, 1956

Editor
Record-Herald
Dear Sir:

This is an open letter to the Miami-Trace Board of Education and their "study Committee".

Last fall you presented to the voters of Miami Trace District a bond issue of $1,655,000. This included $248,000 for equipment for new and old buildings and $442,000 for remodeling and rehabilitation of existing elementary schools (see advertisement in Record-Herald Nov. 5, 1955, page 9).

At that time Jeffersonville and Bloomington were not a part of your district.

On Friday, March 23 we read in the Record-Herald the following report of the 29-man committee's observation:

"The facilities—the buildings and equipment—were found to be in 'acceptable condition.' Perrill commented that the committee found that some repairs needed to be made but he added that most of them could be classed as a minor nature."

"The one thing that drew fire

from the committee was the lighting system—the lighting system was applied to all of the schools. It was called "inadequate" in a blanket description.

"Some of the schools need new equipment, such as desks and seats for the pupils," a committee man said.

Do we need $442,000 worth of lights and desks?

Is $442,000 considered a minor repair item?

Now let's have the truth.

Did the need for $442,000 in repairs really exist last fall? If it existed then why couldn't this committee see it this week? Aren't they competent to discover needs?

If the need did not really exist last fall why did you ask the voters for a blank check for $442,000.

Perhaps my information is entirely wrong due to that naughty old Record-Herald misquoting you again.

(Signed)
C. E. Rhoad.

Lake Okeechobee Level Dropping

CLEWISTON, Fla. (AP)—The water level in Lake Okeechobee is down to 11.86 feet and still falling, officials report.

W. Turner Wallis, executive director of the central and south Florida flood control district said the level may even surpass the record artificial low of 1932 when the water was drained off so dikes could be built around the big lake.

The prolonged dry weather, which is making it difficult to get irrigation water from the lake, has affected spring crops on thousands of acres.

Is Excess Weight A Common Problem For Women Over 35?

Yes. The older you get the more your body processes slow down, and the less active you become. This is the time you must guard against becoming overweight. You require less food, but there is a tendency to cut down. If this is your problem you will be interested in the experience of Mrs. Dorothy Opp, 1915 Lydian Ave., Cleveland 11, Ohio. Mrs. Opp writes: "I am 43 years of age, and since using Renel Concentrate I have lost 40 lbs. Renel has truly given me back my youth. I not only look better, but I feel better. I used to get so out of breath going up and down stairs. Now I can run up and down and I never get short of breath. I can buy more youthful clothes, too. My friends are all telling me how much better I look."

Thousands of others have overcome the social and physical discomfort of being overweight with this effective home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Renel Concentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. No diets to complicate your meal planning. No expensive vitamins to fortify your system from weakness while going without food for you can eat normally. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender, youthful curves—if red—size excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. Insist on Renel.

Browning Club Banquet Marks Calendar Year In Study Of Literature

The calendar year of Browning Club was concluded with the annual banquet held at the Washington Country Club Monday, and the annual event was enjoyed by sixty-five members and guests.

The banquet tables enhanced with lovely arrangements of spring flowers in silver and crystal vases were softly lighted with tall white tapers.

A tempting three course meal was served entirely by candlelight and the members and guests were in lovely afternoon and evening attire.

Preceding the dinner hour, Mrs. Emerson Chapman read the Collect, and Mrs. Marguerite Hodge, club president, welcomed the members and guests, also presiding throughout the meeting following the delightful dinner hour.

A most impressive memorial service was conducted by Mrs. Emerson Chapman, and at the conclusion a candle was lighted in memory of Miss Edith Gardner, a valued member recently deceased.

Mrs. Hodge presented the program chairman, Mrs. Willard Bitzer, who in turn introduced Mrs. Herbert Perrill, in a most delightful interlude of music, with Lynn and Brian Frook, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Frook, executing difficult numbers, both in piano solos, vocal solos and duets, and in encores which they graciously did in response to generous applause.

Mrs. Bitzer also presented the speaker for the evening, Mr. Andrew Sparks, news editor for Radio Station W.C.H.O.

In presenting Mr. Sparks, Mrs. Bitzer spoke of his many qualifications, his war service, his splendid record while attending Ohio Wesleyan University.

She also spoke of his accurate, fair and unbiased reporting of local news on the radio.

Mr. Sparks is a member of Phi Beta Kappa Fraternity and was a candidate for the Rhodes Scholarship. He has done some writing and has had an article published in the Atlantic Monthly.

Mr. Sparks chose to talk on the subject "Ideas" and his audience was perfectly at ease as he developed his subject with great understanding.

He explained the word "Idea" which means to most persons as a handle, by which we grip, some part of the world about us, and is the most human way of making mental order out of chaos. Most of what we call facts, were first ideas, in the mind of someone, and the most important so-called facts are those which man has forged for himself with ideas.

He also emphasized the tendency to associate ideas with youth which are replaced with practical common sense, and used historical incidents, and ancient Biblical events to bring out his contention.

Browning Club Banquet Marks Calendar Year In Study Of Literature

The calendar year of Browning Club was concluded with the annual banquet held at the Washington Country Club Monday, and the annual event was enjoyed by sixty-five members and guests.

The banquet tables enhanced with lovely arrangements of spring flowers in silver and crystal vases were softly lighted with tall white tapers.

A tempting three course meal was served entirely by candlelight and the members and guests were in lovely afternoon and evening attire.

Preceding the dinner hour, Mrs. Emerson Chapman read the Collect, and Mrs. Marguerite Hodge, club president, welcomed the members and guests, also presiding throughout the meeting following the delightful dinner hour.

A most impressive memorial service was conducted by Mrs. Emerson Chapman, and at the conclusion a candle was lighted in memory of Miss Edith Gardner, a valued member recently deceased.

Mrs. Hodge presented the program chairman, Mrs. Willard Bitzer, who in turn introduced Mrs. Herbert Perrill, in a most delightful interlude of music, with Lynn and Brian Frock, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Frock, executing difficult numbers, both in piano solos, vocal solos and duets, and in encores which they graciously did in response to generous applause.

Mrs. Bitzer also presented the speaker for the evening, Mr. Andrew Sparks, news editor for Radio Station W.C.H.O.

In presenting Mr. Sparks, Mrs. Bitzer spoke of his many qualifications, his war service, his splendid record while attending Ohio Wesleyan University.

She also spoke of his accurate, fair and unbiased reporting of local news on the radio.

Mr. Sparks is a member of Phi Beta Kappa Fraternity and was a candidate for the Rhodes Scholarship. He has done some writing and has had an article published in the Atlantic Monthly.

Mr. Sparks chose to talk on the subject "Ideas" and his audience was perfectly at ease as he developed his subject with great understanding.

He explained the word "Idea" which means to most persons as a handle, by which we grip, some part of the world about us, and is the most human way of making mental order out of chaos. Most of what we call facts, were first ideas, in the mind of someone, and the most important so-called facts are those which man has forged for himself with ideas.

He also emphasized the tendency to associate ideas with youth which are replaced with practical common sense, and used historical incidents, and ancient Biblical events to bring out his contention.

Record Entry List Set For 20th Masters

Course At Augusta Labeled Tough; No Fluke Wins Recorded

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—The 20th Masters Golf Tournament, an event the players say is approaching, if not equal to, the National Open in importance, will get under way Thursday with a record entry list and probably a record attendance.

By sundown Monday, 76 players from the carefully selected invitation list had checked in at the Augusta National Golf Club and nine others had sent acceptances. The number of starters is almost certain to break the record of 79.

As for the galleries, there's no telling how many will pay the $7.50 for the final day, especially if a couple of celebrated golfers like Sam Snead and Ben Hogan are battling for the title as they did two years ago. The crowds at the Masters sometimes run as high as 18,000.

They're well behaved, golf-wise fans too. That's one of the features that makes the Masters unique. Another is that it's played every year on the same course—a superb but never unfair 6,800-yard test of golf. Augusta National, the playground of a president and a headache for the pros who are accustomed to shattering par every week, never has to be toughened up for the tournament.

For this reason a couple of seasoned pros, Gene Sarazen and Johnny Palmer, today tabbed the Masters as a better tournament than the Open.

"You never have a fluke winner here, any more than in the British championships that are played on a few real good courses," said Sarazen. "For the Open they take any kind of a course and then send Trent Jones out to build some new tees and traps."

Most of the other players said they'd rather win the Open because of its greater prestige and financial return but agreed that the national tournament has been losing ground in recent years while the Masters has been gaining.

The Masters invitation list includes about 120 players who have earned their bids by past triumphs or by top performances during the previous year. Top money is $5,000.

Warriors, Pistons To Renew Battle

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Warriors and the Fort Wayne Pistons hit the boards again tonight for the third game of the National Basketball Assn. championship series, now tied.

The Warriors won the first game in the best of four of seven series last Saturday in Philadelphia 98-94. The Pistons evened it up Sunday on their home court 84-83.

So far the series has been a battle between the speedy Philadelphia sharpshooters and the closely knit Fort Wayne defense.

Smallwood Chalks Ortega As Victim

NEW YORK (AP)—Hardy (Bazooka) Smallwood had an unbeaten string of five today and a date to try and make it six following his victory over Mexico's Gaspar Ortega.

The 23-year-old ex-GI from Brooklyn proved too strong for the 20-year-old Mexican in winning the decision after 10 rounds of slam-bang action at St. Nicholas Arena last night.

Oilers, Bakers Scheduled To Tangle Again

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Bartlesville Oilers and the Seattle Bakers get a chance tonight to replay the championship game of the National AAU Basketball Tournament, but both have failed to live up to expectations they would supply the nucleus of the U.S. Olympic team.

The armed forces and the college All-Stars clash in tonight's second game after knocking off the AAU teams in the first night of a three-night round-robin.

The armed forces club, coached by veteran Bruce Drake, bowled over the Oilers 78-77 in overtime last night and the College All-Stars ran away from the Bakers 86-79.

The playoffs end tomorrow night with the winning club furnishing from five to seven of the players for the U. S. team going to the Olympics in November.

When the playoffs started tonight's meeting between the Oilers and the Bakers promised to be the key game. Bartlesville had lost 50-57 to Seattle in the finals of the AAU Tournament, but had trounced the champs three times earlier in the season.

The College All-Stars supposedly hadn't practiced together enough to click against a team that had played as a unit all year.

George Mikan Ready To Run For Congress

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—George Mikan is ready to reroute his oratory from the frayed ears of basketball officials to the voters.

The cloud scraping Minneapolis Laker star is running again—away from the arenas where he thrilled thousands and towards the halls of Congress.

For the last four months the big fellow has been informally pushing his candidacy for the Republican nomination for congressman from Minnesota's 3rd district. He's about set to make it official.

Mikan the politician thus joins Mikan the athlete, Mikan the general manager and Mikan the lawyer.

His appointment schedule is clogged. His business engagements overrun each other. He doesn't have as much time as he wants for his law practice. The Lakers need some more manpower next year.

Mikan is after the congressional seat now held by Democrat Roy Wier. To get on the Republican ticket this fall he must first get past the GOP primary, unless no one else files.

110 Gridders Seen At Buck Tryouts

COLUMBUS (AP)—Some 110 candidates for the Buckeye football squad are expected to report to Coach Woody Hayes today at the start of spring practice.

The first day of practice for the Ohio State University Big Ten champions, originally scheduled for yesterday, was postponed because of rain.

National YMCA Tourney Slated

TOLEDO (AP)—Thirteen teams representing 11 cities will compete in the national YMCA basketball tournament to be held at the Central YMCA here Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The tournament will be a single elimination affair, with a consolation bracket for teams defeated in the first round.

Training Camp News Briefs

MESA, Ariz. (AP)—Monte Irvin, former New York Giant star now sporting a Chicago Cub uniform, is a cinch to start opening day.

Irvin, 37, has found his batting eye and is believed to be one of the reasons the Cubs thought they could trade Hank Sauer, also 37, to St. Louis for young Pete Whisenant.

Irvin, in his last seven games, has 11 hits in 22 at bats for a .500 average. His spring average is .318.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Manager Marty Marion put the stamp of approval on three pitchers who he believes could mean a lot to the Chicago White Sox pennant chances this year.

Marion announced that Sandy Consuegra, 35-year-old righthander, would be used as a once-a-week starter in addition to his bullpen duties.

Bob Keegan, a flop last year, has improved tremendously this year and Marion indicated Keegan might be the Sox No. 4 starter.

Marion also is high on Howie Pollet, National League castoff.

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Main interest of the Detroit Tiger brass centered today on Al Kaline.

The 21-year-old American League batting champion was to have two infected teeth pulled today. The infection is believed the source of Kaline's arm trouble which has kept him out of the Tiger lineup most of the spring training season.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs quit spring training camp here today with a question mark on the pitching they need this season.

"We can reach a high niche in the standings," Manager Birdie Tebbetts said, "but we'll go as far as the pitching will take us." Tebbetts started north today with 13 pitchers of a 29-player roster. Three or four of these hurlers will be eliminated, but Tebbetts said, "they'll eliminate themselves."

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—If veterans Ellis Kinder, Red Schoendienst and Hank Sauer keep this up, St. Louis Cardinals rookies will have to wait a little longer to take over.

The 41-year-old Kinder retired the last eight Chicago White Sox batters in succession Monday in a 6-4 Redbird victory. He's allowed just one run in 10 2/3 innings of Grapefruit League pitching.

Schoendienst, 34, rumored over the hill at 34, won the game with a three-run ninth inning home run which raised his spring batting average to .364.

Sauer, 37, acquired last week from the Chicago Cubs where he was one of the game's top home run hitters, delivered a pinch single in the ninth.

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—Herb Score, the major league strikeout leader, said his control is better today than it was during his rookie-of-the-year season.

"Last year I was very apprehensive about my wildness," said the young Cleveland Indian pitcher. "I worried about walking the hitters. Now I have more confidence in myself. I realize I'm still a little wild, but I feel I can get the ball over much more often."

The 22-year-old left-hander struck out 245 batters to lead the majors last season. He won 16 and lost 10.

Robinson Sure He Has Won Dodger Spot

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—If the National League season were to open tomorrow, Jackie Robinson would be in the starting lineup as the regular third baseman of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

That is the opinion of Jackie Robinson himself. The veteran but still agile infielder, minus any trace of conceit or egotism, frankly stated today that as far as he's concerned, he has beaten out Randy Jackson for the job and expects the official announcement to come within the next few days.

"I don't know how Walter Alston feels about it," the 37-year-old Robby said. "The skipper hasn't said anything either way. But the way I feel, I've won the job. I'm not taking anything away from Randy. I've got a lot of respect for his ability, but I've got more respect for my own."

"Nobody can beat me out the way I've been playing this spring. I'm in good shape. My legs feel strong and I'm free around the chest. I'm swinging real good and meeting the ball well. I think I'm approaching the kind of baseball I played three, four years ago. If I can continue to do that, no matter how well Jackson plays, he can't beat me out. Barring injury, I don't see how they can keep me out of the lineup."

How did Alston feel? "I'm still undecided," the manager said with a smile.

Phog Allen Faces $35,000 Lawsuit

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Harry D. Henshel, the New Yorker who heads the Olympic Basketball Committee, wants $35,000 for some remarks made by Forrest C. (Phog) Allen, voluble University of Kansas basketball coach.

Henshel filed a slander suit against Allen in Jackson County court here yesterday.

Asked for comment, Allen said: "It's hardly worth it. It should be very, very interesting."

Allen criticized Henshel at the height of the recent furor over the Amateur Athletic Union's suspension of Wes Santee, former K. U. track star and currently the nation's fastest miler. Santee's amateur standing was revoked for life after he accepted "excessive" expense money for running in three track meets.

Some Think Milwaukee Lost 1956 Pennant Last Month

WAYCROSS, Ga. (AP)—Pennants, as a rule, aren't lost in March, but that's exactly what happened in the case of the Milwaukee Braves when Gene Conley, their ace righthander, suffered a recurrence of his chronic back and shoulder miseries.

Although slightly encouraged by the latest medical report on the ailing shoulder of the 6-8 pitcher, which showed "definite improvement," nobody in the Braves camp knows for sure when Conley will be able to pitch again, if at all. He was left in Bradenton when the Braves broke camp the other day.

Milwaukee must have a sound Conley if it is to make up the 13½ games that separated it from the pennant winning Brooklyn Dodgers last year. If Conley can't take his regular turn and contribute the 15-20 victories expected of him, the Braves will be lucky to do as well as last year when they finished second.

Manager Charlie Grimm, a sincere and forthright person who doesn't try to sell you a bill of goods, put his finger on the Braves situation the day before the Conley injury hit the camp like a ton of bricks.

"We've got a good team, one that's capable of overhauling the Dodgers," he said, "but we've got to stay together. The big thing is Conley. We've never had Conley for a full year. He was out three weeks in 1954 and six weeks last season. If he's right, he's a potential 20-game winner."

"We've never had a full team since we've moved to Milwaukee," the Braves' pilot continued. "Injuries to key men killed us. Even if Conley is available all year, Grimm realizes he is not out of the woods by any means."

"Our problem is left field, second base and the bullpen," he said. "Not only must we get something out of Conley but Bobby Thomson has to come through and we've got to clear up the second base situation."

"Last year we had no bullpen at all. Dave Jolly did a good job for us in 1954. Last year he couldn't get anybody out. In the bullpen now we'll have Jolly, Ernie Johnson, Red Murf and Lou Sleater. It looks good right now."

Grimm has no worries at all about third base and shortstop where Ed Matthews and Johnny Logan may be the best at their positions. It's his theory that Joe Adcock will be the first baseman but he concedes that either George Crowe, a .281 hitter last year, or rookie Frank Torre, who batted .327 at Toledo, may beat him out. He likes Felix Mantilla, a fancy fielding young shortstop, who has surprised him with his hitting ability. The kid figures to be kept for utility purposes.

"My outfield is set," declared Grimm. "Billy Bruton always a fine defensive center fielder, has shown great improvement at the plate and there's nobody who's faster. Aaron has a chance to be the greatest righthanded hitter in the league. Thomson is my left fielder and Andy Pafko, who can still play any outfield position is my fourth outfielder. It's between Chuck Tanner and Wes Covington for the other outfield job."

Until he's convinced Conley can't help him this year, Grimm figures on a five-man starting staff consisting of left-handers Warren Spahn and Chet Nichols and righthanders Bob Buhl, Lew Burdette and Conley Spahn, no longer bothered by bad knees, has looked good but Nichols has been bothered by a sore arm. Grimm hopes to get some starting help from Ray Crone and Humberto Robinson.

The catching is in the capable hands of Del Crandall, who batted only .236 but slammed 26 home runs; and Del Rice, probably the best No. 2 catcher in the league

Record Entry List Set For 20th Masters

Course At Augusta Labeled Tough; No Fluke Wins Recorded

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—The 20th Masters Golf Tournament, an event the players say is approaching, if not equal to, the National Open in importance, will get under way Thursday with a record entry list and probably a record attendance.

By sundown Monday, 76 players from the carefully selected invitation list had checked in at the Augusta National Golf Club and nine others had sent acceptances. The number of starters is almost certain to break the record of 79.

As for the galleries, there's no telling how many will pay the $7.50 for the final day, especially if a couple of celebrated golfers like Sam Snead and Ben Hogan are battling for the title as they did two years ago. The crowds at the Masters sometimes run as high as 18,000.

They're well-behaved, golf-wise fans too. That's one of the features that makes the Masters unique. Another is that it's played every year on the same course—a superb but never unfair 6,800-yard test of golf. Augusta National, the playground of a president and a headache for the pros who are accustomed to shattering par every week, never has to be toughened up for the tournament.

For this reason a couple of seasoned pros, Gene Sarazen and Johnny Palmer, today tabbed the Masters as a better tournament than the Open.

"You never have a fluke winner here, any more than in the British championships that are played on a few real good courses," said Sarazen. "For the Open they take any kind of a course and then send Trent Jones out to build some new tees and traps."

Most of the other players said they'd rather win the Open because of its greater prestige and financial return but agreed that the national tournament has been losing ground in recent years while the Masters has been gaining.

The Masters invitation list includes about 120 players who have earned their bids by past triumphs or by top performances during the previous year. Top money is $5,000.

Warriors, Pistons To Renew Battle

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Warriors and the Fort Wayne Pistons hit the boards again tonight for the third game of the National Basketball Assn. championship series, now tied.

The Warriors won the first game in the best of four of seven series last Saturday in Philadelphia 98-94. The Pistons evened it up Sunday on their home court 84-83.

So far the series has been a battle between the speedy Philadelphia sharpshooters and the closely knit Fort Wayne defense.

Smallwood Chalks Ortega As Victim

NEW YORK (AP)—Hardy (Bazooka) Smallwood had an unbeaten string of five today and a date to try and make it six following his victory over Mexico's Gaspar Ortega.

The 23-year-old ex-GI from Brooklyn proved too strong for the 20-year-old Mexican in winning the decision after 10 rounds of slam-bang action at St. Nicholas Arena last night.

Oilers, Bakers Scheduled To Tangle Again

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Bartlesville Oilers and the Seattle Bakers get a chance tonight to replay the championship game of the National AAU Basketball Tournament, but both have failed to live up to expectations they would supply the nucleus of the U.S. Olympic team.

The armed forces and the college All-Stars clash in tonight's second game after knocking off the AAU teams in the first night of a three-night round-robin.

The armed forces club, coached by veteran Bruce Drake, bowled over the Oilers 78-77 in overtime last night, and the College All-Stars ran away from the Bakers 86-79.

The playoffs end tomorrow night with the winning club furnishing from five to seven of the players for the U. S. team going to the Olympics in November.

When the playoffs started tonight's meeting between the Oilers and the Bakers promised to be the key game. Bartlesville had lost 59-57 to Seattle in the finals of the AAU Tournament, but had trounced the champs three times earlier in the season.

The College All-Stars supposedly hadn't practiced together enough to click against a team that had played as a unit all year.

George Mikan Ready To Run For Congress

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—George Mikan is ready to reroute his oratory from the frayed ears of basketball officials to the voters.

The cloud scraping Minneapolis Laker star is running again—away from the arenas where he thrilled thousands and towards the halls of Congress.

For the last four months the big fellow has been informally pushing his candidacy for the Republican nomination for congressman from Minnesota's 3rd district. He's about set to make it official.

Mikan the politician thus joins Mikan the athlete, Mikan the general manager and Mikan the lawyer.

His appointment schedule is clogged. His business engagements overrun each other. He doesn't have as much time as he wants for his law practice. The Lakers need some more manpower next year.

Mikan is after the congressional seat now held by Democrat Roy Wier. To get on the Republican ticket this fall he must first get past the GOP primary, unless no one else files.

110 Gridders Seen At Buck Tryouts

COLUMBUS (AP)—Some 110 candidates for the Buckeye football squad are expected to report to Coach Woody Hayes today at the start of spring practice.

The first day of practice for the Ohio State University Big Ten champions, originally scheduled for yesterday, was postponed because of rain.

National YMCA Tourney Slated

TOLEDO (AP)—Thirteen teams representing 11 cities will compete in the national YMCA basketball tournament to be held at the Central YMCA here Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The tournament will be a single elimination affair, with a consolation bracket for teams defeated in the first round.

Training Camp News Briefs

MESA, Ariz. (AP)—Monte Irvin, former New York Giant star now sporting a Chicago Cub uniform, is a cinch to start opening day.

Irvin, 37, has found his batting eye and is believed to be one of the reasons the Cubs thought they could trade Hank Sauer, also 37, to St. Louis for young Pete Whisenant.

Irvin, in his last seven games, has 11 hits in 22 at bats for a .500 average. His spring average is .318.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Manager Marty Marion put the stamp of approval on three pitchers who he believes could mean a lot to the Chicago White Sox pennant chances this year.

Marion announced that Sandy Consuegra, 35-year-old righthander would be used as a once-a-week starter in addition to his bullpen duties.

Bob Keegan, a flop last year, has improved tremendously this year and Marion indicated Keegan might be the Sox No. 4 starter.

Marion also is high on Howie Pollet, National League castoff.

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Main interest of the Detroit Tiger brass centered today on Al Kaline.

The 21-year-old American League batting champion was to have two infected teeth pulled today. The infection is believed the source of Kaline's arm trouble which has kept him out of the Tiger lineup most of the spring training season.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs quit spring training camp here today with a question mark on the pitching they need this season.

"We can reach a high niche in the standings," Manager Birdie Tebbetts said, "but we'll go as far as the pitching will take us." Tebbetts started north today with 13 pitchers of a 29-player roster. Three or four of these hurlers will be eliminated, but Tebbetts said, "they'll eliminate themselves."

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—If veterans Ellis Kinder, Red Schoendienst and Hank Sauer keep this up, St. Louis Cardinal rookies will have to wait a little longer to take over.

The 41-year-old Kinder retired the last eight Chicago White Sox batters in succession Monday in a 6-4 Redbird victory. He's allowed just one run in 10 2-3 innings of Grapefruit League pitching.

Schoendienst, 34, rumored over the hill at 34, won the game with a three-run ninth inning home run which raised his spring batting average to .364.

Sauer, 37, acquired last week from the Chicago Cubs where he was one of the game's top home run hitters, delivered a pinch single in the ninth.

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—Herb Score, the major league strikeout leader, said his control is better today than it was during his rookie-of-the-year season.

"Last year I was very apprehensive about my wildness," said the young Cleveland Indian pitcher. "I worried about walking the hitters. Now I have more confidence in myself. I realize I'm still a little wild, but I feel I can get the ball over much more often."

The 22-year-old left-hander struck out 245 batters to lead the majors last season. He won 16 and lost 10.

Robinson Sure He Has Won Dodger Spot

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—If the National League season were to open tomorrow, Jackie Robinson would be in the starting lineup as the regular third baseman of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

That is the opinion of Jackie Robinson himself. The veteran but still agile infielder, minus any trace of conceit or egotism, frankly stated today that as far as he's concerned, he has beaten out Randy Jackson for the job and expects the official announcement to come within the next few days.

"I don't know how Walter Alston feels about it," the 37-year-old Robby said. "The skipper hasn't said anything either way. But the way I feel, I've won the job. I'm not taking anything away from Randy. I've got a lot of respect for his ability, but I've got more respect for my own."

"Nobody can beat me out the way I've been playing this spring. I'm in good shape. My legs feel strong and I'm free around the chest. I'm swinging real good and meeting the ball well. I think I'm approaching the kind of baseball I played three, four years ago. If I can continue to do that, no matter how well Jackson plays, he can't beat me out. Barring injury, I don't see how they can keep me out of the lineup."

How did Alston feel? "I'm still undecided," the manager said with a smile.

Phog Allen Faces $35,000 Lawsuit

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Harry D. Henshel, the New Yorker who heads the Olympic Basketball Committee, wants $35,000 for some remarks made by Forrest C. (Phog) Allen, voluble University of Kansas basketball coach.

Henshel filed a slander suit against Allen in Jackson County court here yesterday.

Asked for comment, Allen said: "It's hardly worth it. It should be very, very interesting."

Allen criticized Henshel at the height of the recent furor over the Amateur Athletic Union's suspension of Wes Santee, former K. U. track star and currently the nation's fastest miler. Santee's amateur standing was revoked for life after he accepted "excessive" expense money for running in three track meets.

Some Think Milwaukee Lost 1956 Pennant Last Month

WAYCROSS, Ga. (AP)—Pennants, as a rule, aren't lost in March, but that's exactly what happened in the cast of the Milwaukee Braves when Gene Conley, their ace righthander, suffered a recurrence of his chronic back and shoulder miseries.

Although slightly encouraged by the latest medical report on the ailing shoulder of the 6-8 pitcher, which showed "definite improvement," nobody in the Braves camp knows for sure when Conley will be able to pitch again, if at all. He was left in Bradenton when the Braves broke camp the other day.

If Conley can't take his regular turn and contribute the 15-20 victories expected of him, the Braves will be lucky to do as well as last year when they finished second.

Manager Charlie Grimm, a sincere and forthright person who doesn't try to sell you a bill of goods, put his finger on the Braves situation the day before the Conley injury hit the camp like a ton of bricks.

"We've got a good team, one that's capable of overhauling the Dodgers," he said, "but we've got to stay together. The big thing is Conley. We've never had Conley for a full year. He was out three weeks in 1954 and six weeks this season. If he's right, he's a potential 20-game winner."

Until he's convinced Conley can't help him this year, Grimm figures on a five-man starting staff consisting of lefthanders Warren Spahn and Chet Nichols and righthanders Bob Buhl, Lew Burdette and Conley. Spahn, no longer bothered by bad knees, has looked good but Nichols has been bothered by a sore arm. Grimm hopes to get some starting help from Ray Crone and Humberto Robinson.

The catching is in the capable hands of Del Crandall, who batted only .236 but slammed 26 home runs; and Del Rice, probably the best No. 2 catcher in the league.

Greek King Backs Cypriot Demands

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—King Paul declared today that the people of Greece are "united as a single soul" in support of Cypriots fighting for self-determination.

The king said "the Greek people, united as a single soul in the claim of self-determination of their Cypriot brethren, except with unflinching confidence the satisfaction of this noble struggle."

Greek Cypriots have been waging the campaign on the Mediterranean island Britain rules as a crown colony. The Greek Cypriots want self-determination so they can unite Cyprus with Greece.

Gotham's Budget To Hit New High

NEW YORK (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner today proposed a record high executive budget which put the cost of operating New York City at $1,853,795,103 for the 1956-57 fiscal year.

The expense budget, presented to the Board of Estimate and City Council, was $113,728,993 over the budget for the current fiscal year ending June 30.

The new executive budget provides for adding about 3,800 employees to the city payroll. They include 1,000 policemen, 1,001 teachers and 400 firemen. The present city payroll lists 187,500 workers.

BALTIMORE POLICE and firemen seek the bodies of two soldiers from Fort Meade, drowned when their car plunged over the end of the Fell street railroad trestle into Baltimore harbor. A third soldier, James Cox, 19, of Brooklyn, survived by jumping from the car just before it hit the water. The victims were identified as Ralph Fraley, 36, and Raymond Washburn, 19. (International)

WHEN VINCENT MASSEY, Governor General of Canada, stopped over at Resolute on his 10,000-mile tour of the Canadian high Arctic, he was surprised to find Eskimo camera bugs waiting to snap his picture. He was the first Canadian head of state to fly over both the geographic and magnetic North Pole. (International)

W. R. Hook Dies In Hospital Here

Funeral Director Here Since 1931

William R. Hook, 64, died in Memorial Hospital here at 4 A. M. Tuesday. Seriously ill and an invalid for the last 15 years, he had been in the hospital for the last 10 days after he had taken a turn for the worse.

Although a native of Adams County, he spent most of his early life in Brown County, where he had a furniture store and was a funeral director for 15 years in Russellville before coming to Washington C. H. in 1931.

He came here after purchasing the undertaking establishment of Albert R. McCoy and continued it under the name of McCoy & Hook for several years.

Later the Hook Funeral Home was opened at the corner of East and North Streets. After Mr. Hook's health began to fail and his son had finished his schooling and technical training, it became the Hook & Son Funeral Home and has continued as that ever since.

Mr. Hook was a member of Grace Methodist Church and its men's Bible Class here and a regular attendant of both when his health permitted. He also belonged to the Masonic lodge of Russellville.

Besides his widow, he is survived by a son, Robert E. Hook, city; a daughter, Mrs. Charles Spetnagel, of Albuquerque, N. M., and three grandsons and two granddaughters.

He also leaves three brothers, Leslie of Dayton, Arthur of Denver and Harry of Wilmington and three sisters, Mrs. Harve Kress and Mrs. Robert Lyon of Georgetown and Mrs. J. N. Dugan of Cincinnati.

Funeral services are to be held at the Hook & Son Funeral Home here at 11 A. M. Thursday and at the Methodist Church in Russellville at 2:30 P. M. Burial is to be in the Russellville Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 P. M. today.

NFIB Organizer Here For Sign-ups

C. M. Barker, the district manager for the National Federation of Independent Business is in Washington C. H. now to sign up independent businessmen as members.

He said that he is here "to enlarge the chapter to its potential voting membership." The chapter now has 25 members and Barker said he hoped to increase the roll to 100 during the next two or three weeks that he is here.

Through the medium of voting on legislative proposals that would affect the local and national affairs of small businesses and in dependent businesses, members of the federation are given the opportunity to express themselves, Barker said.

He explained that the ballots are then sent to the district headquarters for tabulation. The ballots are then tabulated on the national level and the summary of the voting sent to all "legislative offices" in the nation's capital, he added.

High Court Fails

May 28 without a final court decision.

The dispute began after a city rezoning by the school board, when a few Negro children were admitted to the Webster and Washington schools. But the Lincoln school still was all-Negro.

The school board has consistently maintained that it plans to abandon Lincoln school as soon as new buildings are completed at the Washington and Webster schools.

The high court decision carried with it no written statement. It merely refused to hear the case. This action meant the high court agreed completely with the Cincinnati appellate court which ordered immediate integration.

There was no specific directive to U. S. District Judge John Druffel of Cincinnati who had been overruled by the appellate court and who has stated he would not reverse his position and direct integration in Hillsboro until "ordered" by the Supreme Court.

Druffel said the Supreme Court's 1955 opinion on the manner of ending segregation gave federal district judges the right to determine how soon integration would be achieved.

He found a program of integration being carried forward by the Hillsboro school board was in fact a "good faith" implementation of the abolishment of segregation.

The school board said some Negroes were attending the Webster-Washington school and the refusal to admit more was only because of lack of room. Negro children denied admission to the school have been getting private instruction in the present school year.
